

Quaker Book Service

Book List Number 38 2016-2017

SUBJECT HEADINGS

The Quaker Way - General.....	3
Peace.....	6
Justice System.....	7
Social Witness.....	8
Environmental Concerns.....	9
Quaker History and Biography.....	11
Religion.....	13
Inward Life.....	15
Children and Young People.....	16
Song Books.....	18
Fiction and Humour.....	19
The Arts.....	19
Life in Community.....	19
Family.....	21
Personal Spiritual Experiences.....	21
Disciplines and Directories.....	23
Sale Items.....	24
Leaflets.....	26
Index.....	27
ORDER FORM.....	31

NOTICE:

Since the Quaker Book Service catalogue is now on-line, a printed copy will no longer be included in an issue of The Canadian Friend. If you would like to have a printed catalogue, please send your request by e-mail to quakerbookservice@gmail.com or by post to Quaker Book Service, Box 4652 Station E, Ottawa ON K1S 5H8.

A number of copies of the catalogue will be sent as usual to Meetings and Worship Groups for general use.

QUAKER BOOK SERVICE

June 2016

Book List #38

Quaker Book Service Committee is a committee of Ottawa Monthly Meeting, serving Canadian Friends. An annual report is submitted to Publications and Communications Committee and the report is included in the Minutes of Canadian Yearly Meeting.

We are volunteers, donating our time every week to serve Friends in this way. Over the past 37 years we have tried to meet Friends' needs in appropriate ways, but we cannot respond to phone calls. Books can be purchased most Sundays after Meeting for Worship in Ottawa.

Quaker Book Service does not have the resources of a commercial bookseller, so in general we are unable to make special orders for books not in our regular stock.

This catalogue is available on the CYM website www.quaker.ca/qbs. Copies of the printed version are sent to Meetings and will be supplied to individuals on request.

As new books are stocked, they are listed in The Canadian Friend and on the website throughout the year.

Books are paperback unless otherwise specified, and prices are in Canadian dollars. These prices are for our present stock and may fluctuate when we have to reorder.

Our aim is to make books of specific interest to Quakers more readily available to Canadian Friends. Please let us have your comments and suggestions.

A number of books are no longer sold directly by the publishers and can only be purchased from major online sellers. Since those books are readily available, QBS does not stock them.

For all correspondence write to:

Quaker Book Service
Box 4652 Station E
Ottawa, Ontario
K1S 5H8

Email: quakerbookservice@gmail.com

---

MAIL ORDERS

To keep costs down, sales are by pre-payment only and prices include HST. When you order by mail, please include full payment for books that you order plus mailing costs according to the following schedule:

Value of order between	Postage
$0 - $9.95	$2.50
$10 - $19.95	$7.50
$20 - $34.95	$10.00
$35 - $59.95	$11.50
$60 and over	$13.00

Make cheques and money orders payable to QUAKER BOOK SERVICE. If we cannot fill your order, we will send you a credit note. This will be converted into a cash refund on request. An order form is included at the back of this catalogue.

GIFT CERTIFICATES

Gift certificates are now available. Send us complete information about the name and address of the recipient, along with a cheque for the desired amount of the gift. We will send a current QBS Book List with the certificate, which will be valid for one year from the date of issue.

CONSIGNMENT OF BOOKS

Friends groups are invited to request consignments of books to be sent for sale at Half-Yearly Meetings or similar large gatherings.

Quaker Book Service must receive such a request at least six weeks prior to the required date in order to organize the shipment.

BOOK SALE

See page 24 for details of our book clearance sale. Books in this special sale are available only as long as present stocks last. Quantities are limited.

THE QUAKER WAY - GENERAL

NEW!

Advices and Queries, Britain YM, 1995.
Bound copy. Especially recommended for gifts and frequent use.
($15.00)

The Amazing Fact of Quaker

Worship, Swarthmore Lecture, 1973 by George H. Gorman, Quaker Books, London, 1973. (reprinted five times)
In this Quaker classic Gorman looks at Quaker worship as seen by a newcomer. He approaches religion as human experience seeking spiritual meaning.
RECOMMENDED FOR ENQUIRERS.
(157 pp) ($20.00)

NEW!

Being a Quaker: A Guide for Newcomers, by Geoffrey Durham. 2nd ed., Quaker Quest, 2013.
This introduction to 21st century Quaker faith and practice is the book to recommend to an enquirer considering membership. Part 1 shows how a Quaker meeting works; Part 2 offers important “then-and-now” history; Part 3 discusses Testimonies. The author “talks” to readers from his personal experience.
(157 pp) ($17.50)

Belonging and the Practice of Our Faith

by Dana Mullen
(Sunderland P. Gardner Lecture 2012. Canadian Quaker Learning Series No. 2, Canadian Yearly Meeting 2012.)
The spiritual path of Quakers is a closely woven web of belief, belonging and behavior. Dana Mullen’s work on our book of Canadian Faith and Practice and the words of past Friends have helped her to identify the spiritual strands in that web, gathered over almost 50 years of belonging to a Quaker meeting.
(24 pp) ($6.00)

Beyond Majority Rule, by Michael J. Sheeran (Philadelphia YM, 1983)
An analysis by a Jesuit priest of how Friends make decisions. Based on interviews with Philadelphia Friends, with an extensive historical summary of early Friends’ experience.
(153 pp) ($19.50)

Celebrating the Quaker Way, by Ben Pink Dandelion (Quaker Books, London. Second ed. 2010)
This essay was written for Quakers rather than about them. The author describes how being a Quaker affects his life; it celebrates the nature of silent worship, vocal ministry, discernment and prompting to action in community.
(31 pp) ($6.25)

Convinced Quakerism, by Ben Pink Dandelion (Southeastern YM of the Religious Society of Friends, 2003)
In delivering the Annual Walton Lecture 2003, the author discussed how Quakers might view the term conviction today, and how understanding its original sense might enable us to regain a language with which to better describe some of our experiences. He traced the profile of our Quakerism, the nature of early Quaker conviction, and his own experiences and ended with some reflection on the use of language in relation to experience.
(24 pp) ($7.80)

Creeds and Quakers, by Robert Griswold (PHP #377, 2005).
Quaker spiritual authority lies not in belief systems - in creeds - but in direct communion between individual Friends and the Divine Spirit. While early Friends’ refusal to formulate a creed threatened existing religious practice and brought them great persecution, this historic witness against creeds is not fully appreciated by Friends today and may be in danger of being lost.
(35 pp) ($6.50)

Essays on the Quaker Vision of Gospel Order, by Lloyd Lee Wilson (FGC, 1996)

The author explores the concept of Gospel Order as understood by early Quakers and contemporary Conservative Friends, articulating the ways in which Friends’ vision of Gospel Order has shaped their beliefs.
(200 pp) ($22.10)

The Faith and Practice of the

Quakers, by Rufus Jones (FUP, Second reprint 2002)
Originally published in 1927, the book situates Quakerism among the religions of the world, outlines the history of Quakers, and describes Quaker beliefs and practices as unique expressions of Christianity.
(181 pp) ($26.00)

God and decision-making: a Quaker Approach

by Jane Mace.
(Quaker Books, London. 2012)
This research-based study explains the processes and disciplines used by Quakers in their group decision-making, which is based on a commitment to divine guidance. Helpful examples are offered from clerking and minute-writing witnessed by the author.
(146 pp) ($20.00)

Guide to Quaker Practice, by Howard H. Brinton (PHP #20, 2007)
This faithful guide, popular for more than 60 years, has been republished for its 15th printing in a New Edition to demystify Friends’ customary procedures. It deals with Meeting for Worship, the structure of the Religious Society of Friends, Meeting for Business, committee work and social testimonies.
(72 pp) ($10.40)

Introduction from Quaker

Spirituality, by Douglas V. Steere (Philadelphia YM, 1988)
Adaptation of the author’s introduction to Quaker Spirituality. Describes the place of Quakerism within the Christian stream. RECOMMENDED FOR ENQUIRERS.
(56 pp) ($7.80)

THE QUAKER WAY - GENERAL

An Introduction to Quakerism, by Pink Dandelion. (Cambridge University Press, 2007) A well illustrated scholarly study, this comprehensive introduction to Quakerism balances the history of the theology of the Quakers with a review of present day practice. There are valuable charts, tables, and lists showing where Quakers are spread worldwide today, with an extensive list of references. The author is a well known British sociologist and leader of Quaker studies at Woodbrooke Centre and at the University of Birmingham. (277 pp) ($30.95)

James Nayler Speaking, by Brian Drayton. PHP #413, 2011. The author says: "To read James Nayler is to connect with Quakerism's initial eruption of insight and obedience." Some central themes of Nayler's ministry in the 17th century are explored. (36 pp) ($8.45)

Journeying the Heartlands, Exploring Practices of Quaker Worship, by Elizabeth Brown and Alex Davison. The Kindlers, London, UK, 2003.

This booklet helps newcomers and members to understand and participate in Quaker worship. An excellent source for study sessions. (41 pp) ($7.50)

Letters to a Fellow Seeker: A Short Introduction to the Quaker Way, by Steve Chase (Quaker Books of FGC, Philadelphia, 2012) Well-versed in the ways of Quakers, Steve Chase provides a straightforward and excellent explanation in simple language of what it means to be a Quaker today. An excellent study for members and non-members alike. (98 pp) ($16.80)

A Light that is Shining: an Introduction to the Quakers, by Harvey Gillman (QHS 2nd edition, 1997) Introduces Friends religious convictions, their form of worship and their political and social insights from a British perspective. RECOMMENDED FOR ENQUIRERS. (101 pp) ($12.50)

The Light Within: Then and Now, by Rex Ambler. PHP #425, 2013. The author explains the way early Friends understood the Light Within and contrasts it with Quaker thought about it today. He then describes how Quakers today can recover some of those early experiences of Light in their own lives. (35 pp) ($8.45)

Living Our Testimony on Equality, by Patience A. Schenck. PHP #415, 2011. The author shares her experiences and insights on racial equality as she recommends action to welcome and support a community of all races in our meetings and lives. (36 pp) ($8.45)

Meeting the Spirit: An Introduction to Quaker Beliefs and Practices, FWCC, 2001 This small booklet explains many of the beliefs and principles on which Quaker faith is based, and describes some of the practices commonly associated with a Quaker meeting. A good reference for attenders considering applying for membership. (22 pp) ($2.50)

The Mind of Christ: Bill Taber on Meetings for Business, edited by Michael Birkel, PHP #406, 2010. The late Bill Taber, a minister in Ohio Yearly Meeting, left thoughtful notes on the conduct of Meetings for Worship for Business. He speaks of worshipful silence in a patient, spiritual search, often time-consuming, to reach a sense of unity in making decisions under the guidance of the Inward Light. The pamphlet ends with practical suggestions, notes and topics for discussion, and stresses that both clerk and participants should be well prepared. (34 pp) ($8.45)

Open for Transformation: Being Quaker, by Ben Pink Dandelion. Quaker Books. London. 2014. The 2014 Swarthmore Lecturer shows that some changes in Quaker communal life made during the past 150 years have led towards individualism and secularism. He poses rigorous questions about what is meant by being Quaker today and urges us to find transformation in an authentic encounter with the Divine. (113 pp) ($20.00)

Plain Living (A Quaker Path to Simplicity), by Catherine Whitmire (Sorin Books, 2000) Since the 1650s, Quakers have experimented with a variety of spiritual practices to help them keep to a path of plain living. This book is a collection of quotations and stories by and about Quakers, as a record of these experiences. (192 pp) ($17.25)

The Practice of Quaker Worship, by Larry Miller (FGC, 1993) Explores aspects which contribute to Friends worship such as gathered meeting, settling of the meeting, and vocal ministry, in a clear manner. RECOMMENDED FOR ENQUIRERS. (11 pp) ($1.60)

THE QUAKER WAY - GENERAL

The Presence in the Midst, by Peter Eccles, Swarthmore Lecture 2009, Quaker Books, London, UK, 2009. Peter Eccles, a long-time Quaker mathematician, brings science, philosophy, theology and history into this lecture on discernment, the process of determining the will of the spirit of Christ in decision-making, both personal and corporate, in Quaker worship and business meetings. Good notes and bibliography. (156 pp) ($20.00)

Quaker Process for Friends on the Benches, by Mathilda Navias, Friends Publishing Corporation, Philadelphia 2012. A comprehensive guide, the most thorough survey to date of Quaker process and practice. well researched and presented, with glossary of Quaker terms and an extensive index. Every Meeting, Worship Group and Library should have a copy. (323 pp) ($32.50)

The Quaker Reader, selected and introduced by Jessamyn West (Pendle Hill 1992, reprint of 1962 edition) Extracts from many sources illuminating the tenets of Friends faith and practice. RECOMMENDED FOR ENQUIRERS. (538 pp) ($27.30)

The Quaker Way: A Rediscovery, by Rex Ambler, Christian Alternative Books, John Hunt Publishers, UK. 2013. Rex Ambler tells what it means to be a Quaker in worship, making decisions, and meeting others. He stresses silent worship, beyond words, beliefs and reason, to help us realize our relationship with the spiritual reality of God. Five appendices, notes, and references. (160 pp) ($25.90)

Quaker Writings: An Anthology, 1650-1920, introduced and edited by Thomas Hamm. Penguin Books, London, England, 2010. Selected excerpts from writings through almost four centuries by Quaker authors, well organized under six subject headings for easy reference: Beginnings, Maturing, Quietism, Creativity and Controversy, Separate Ways, Peace. (370 pp) ($20.00)

Quakerism – A Religion Meaningful for Today’s World (Philadelphia YM, 1994) The title says it all: a good, brief introduction to the unprogrammed tradition. RECOMMENDED FOR ENQUIRERS. (16 pp) ($2.60)

The Quakers: A Very Short Introduction, by Pink Dandelion (Oxford University Press, NY, 2008) A handy, compact booklet of Quaker history, traditions of worship and practices. (142 pp) ($11.95)

Radicalizing Spirit: The Challenge of Contemporary Quakerism, by Jeffrey Dudiak. Friends United Press. Richmond IN. 2015. The author holds a long-time concern about divisions among Quakers regarding their relationship to Christianity. He draws a parallel between Jesus’ breaking of the Judaic law in order to fulfil its intention of justice and the criticisms by early Quakers of contemporary Christianity in order to fulfill its doctrine of love. Both exercised a radicalizing spirit to maintain a living tradition. (94 pp) ($19.50)

Silence and Speech: An Open Letter to Newcomers, by Richard Allen (QHS, 1992) Aims to help those new to Friends ways of worship to feel a part of the shared experience. (12 pp) ($3.75)

The Spirit of the Quakers, by Geoffrey Durham. Yale University Press, New Haven, 2010. To answer the questions: Who are the Quakers? What do they believe? What do they practice? The author presents twelve related topics, such as “Quaker Meeting of Worship,” on which quotations from well-known Quakers are given as answers, along with introductory comments by the author. Geoffrey Durham was a founding member of Quaker Quest and a contributor to the successful series Twelve Quakers. (244 pp) ($19.50)

Spiritual Accompaniment: An Experience of Two Friends Traveling in the Ministry by Cathy Walling and Elaine Emery. Pendle Hill Pamphlet 428. 2014. This account was written jointly by a Friend travelling in the ministry and the Friend who accompanied her. Together they show how eldering in this situation can be loving and supportive. (36 pp) ($5.45)

Truth of the Heart, edited by Rex Ambler (Quaker Books, 2001) An insightful organization, according to topic, of writings by George Fox. Original texts, matched on facing pages by translations into modern English, are followed by the editor’s essay “Making Sense of Fox.” (202 pp) ($30.00)

THE QUAKER WAY - GENERAL

Twelve Quakers and Worship, by Quaker Quest (Quaker Quest Pamphlet 2, 2004). The worship of Quakers is simple, waiting together in silence and stillness. This pamphlet records the personal worship experience of twelve Friends.
(32 pp) ($6.25)

Visioning New Fire: Working for Quaker Renewal, The Kindlers, Booklet 9, 2013.
Near the end of their plan of work for renewal of Quaker worship and witness in Britain, the Kindlers organized a large, evaluative gathering. This booklet reviews that meeting's thought-provoking talks, workshops and threshing sessions. Includes a CD of original songs reflecting the lifeblood of Quaker worship.
(72 pp) ($7.50)

Whispers of Faith: Young Friends share their experiences of Quakerism, edited by W. Geoffrey Black, P. Zion Klos, Claire Reddy, Milam Smith, Rachel Stacy (Quaker Press of FGC and Quaker Books of BYM 2005).
This book is a collection of inspiring, deeply-felt writing by young Friends. It contains their views on worship, testimonies, communities, spiritual journeys and "walking on water".
(160 pp) ($18.00)

Wrestling with Our Faith Tradition, by Lloyd Lee Wilson (Quaker Press, 2005).
This book chronicles the vocal ministry offered by Lloyd Lee Wilson at Friendly gatherings and yearly meetings from 1995-2004. The author is a minister of the gospel, writer, educator and activist. His travels in the ministry and publications are under the care of Rich Square Monthly Meeting and North Carolina Yearly Meeting (Conservative).
(231 pp) ($28.30)

PEACE

Answering the Violence: Encounters with Perpetrators, by John Lampen. PHP #412, 2011.
John Lampen, a peace activist in Northern Ireland and elsewhere, draws on his own experiences and accounts of others in facing agents of violence in a friendly way.
(40 pp) ($8.45)

Becoming Peacemakers, by Meredith Egan and Marc Forget (Deep Humanity Institute, 2004).
Based on the authors' years of experience, this book is for educators, parents and students interested in changing the way conflict and violence are addressed in the school environment. It aims to foster a restorative approach to behaviour, transgressions and discipline.
(117 pp) ($30.00)

Engraved: Canadian Stories of World War One, Ed. by Bernadette Rule. Seraphim Editions, Niagara Falls ON, 2014.
The 25 stories in this collection, based on letters from the battlefields and family memories, portray the horrors and futility of the "war to end all wars." Canadian Quaker Carol Leigh Wehking's story is unique as it concerns conscientious objection to military service.
(271 pp) ($19.95)

Love Growing In Us: Questioning the Quaker Peace Testimony by John Lampen, The Kindlers, London, UK, 2012.
This internationally-experienced Quaker deals with two aspects of peace-making: personal responses of people in situations of danger or provocation; and dealing with causes and solutions of larger-scale violence and wars.
(41 pp) ($7.50)

Making the Diagnosis: Changing the Prognosis, by Bill Curry and Dale Dewar. Canadian Quaker Learning Series #6, 2014.
The 2014 Sunderland P. Gardner Lecturers diagnose war as a disease; they explain its characteristics and causes, prescribe the necessary treatment and specify preventive measures. They declare their faith that this disease can be eliminated and urge Quakers to be faithful in working towards that goal.
(18 pp) ($6.00)

NEW!
Minutes to Midnight: Why more than 800 Order of Canada recipients call for Nuclear Disarmament, by Murray Thomson, Ottawa, 2015.
As part of a passionately felt campaign for nuclear disarmament, Canadian Quaker Murray Thomson sought support from his fellow Order of Canada recipients. In this book 54 of these distinguished Canadians present their personal views on the urgent need to bring nuclear weaponry under strict and effective international control.
(158 pp) ($20.00)

PEACE

Occupied with Nonviolence: A Palestinian Woman Speaks

by Jean Zaru, Fortress Press, Minneapolis, 2008.

A moving account of the struggle for peace by a Christian Arab, a teacher at the Friends Ramallah School, clerk for many years of their Quaker Meeting, and international lecturer.

(144 pp) ($26.00)

Practicing Peace: A Devotional Walk through the Quaker Tradition

by Catherine Whitmore (Ave Maria Press, 2007)

Catherine Whitmore, Quaker author of the popular anthology Plain Living, shares stories of successful nonviolent movements throughout history, with quotes from over 350 years of Quaker teachings on peace.

(272 pp) ($22.00)

Refusing to be Enemies: Palestinian and Israeli Nonviolent Resistance to the Israeli Occupation

by Maxine Kaufman-Lacusta, with a foreword by Ursula Franklin. Ithaca Press, Reading, UK. 2010.

An extensive study by a Canadian Quaker of peaceful opposition by both Israelis and Palestinians, based on well-documented interviews, as well as essays from several Jewish and Arab activists.

(502 pp) ($30.00)

Twelve Quakers and Pacifism

by Quaker Quest (Quaker Quest Pamphlet 3, 2005).

The twelve Quakers who have written these pieces are of differing ages and backgrounds and their views on pacifism differ too.

(32 pp) ($6.25)

The Ursula Franklin Reader: Pacifism as a Map

by Ursula Franklin (Between the Lines, Toronto, 2006).

Here are comprehensive talks on peace, technology, women's issues and education, drawn from over forty years of research and training by a leading Canadian Quaker, physicist, Massey lecturer, and Pearson Medal of Peace recipient, with a wide background introduction by Michelle Swenarchuk, the Executive Director of the Canadian Environmental Law Association.

(288 pp) ($24.95)

Waging Peace: Discipline and Practice

by Pamela Haines (Pendle Hill Pamphlet # 420. 2012).

The author calls on us to wage peace actively by becoming non-violent "warriors" through daily practices in our own lives.

(35 pp) ($8.45)

What We Stand On, by Paul Christiansen. Pendle Hill Pamphlet 429. 2014.

This lifelong Quaker declares that the wealth of middle- and upper-class Americans is a cause of war, and he therefore challenges Friends to "choose between our treasure and peace."

(29 pp) ($5.45)

JUSTICE SYSTEM

Being Changed in the Sharing: The power of story and restorative justice

by Lisa Smith and Meredith Egan. Mennonite Central Committee Canada. 2010.

Methods of training practitioners, sharing of experiences and stories, working with community organizations, supporting volunteers, and listening to participants all join to make a comprehensive training handbook in restorative justice.

(77 pp) ($10.00)

International Experience with AVP: A Travel Diary

by Ruth Hillman, Canadian Quaker Learning Series no. 3. 2013.

The author tells of her experiences in Alternatives to Violence Projects in prisons, schools, and other community groups in Canada, Britain, Russia, India, Latin America and Haiti.

(28 pp) ($6.00)

Life Lived Inside Out, by Bette Logan, Self-published. 2010.

Bette Logan weaves the story of her life around a long friendship with a man in prison. As she works for prison reform, she meets Quakers, becomes a Quaker herself and is now a member of Toronto Meeting.

(236 pp) ($19.95)

JUSTICE SYSTEM

Ursula Franklin Speaks: Thoughts and Afterthoughts, 1986-2012,

ed. by Sarah Jane Freeman. McGill-Queen's University Press. 2014.

The 22 speeches and 5 interviews in this collection have been organized in three groups according to audiences: citizens, youth, professionals. Each speech contains stimulating thoughts appropriate to the listeners, which we readers are also privileged to receive. Ursula Franklin speaks as a scientist, pacifist, feminist, Quaker.
(256 pp) ($24.95).

SOCIAL WITNESS

NEW!

Decolonising Land and Soul: A Quaker Testimony, by Alastair McIntosh. Canadian Quaker Learning Series # 7. 2015.

Colonization is defined as "the presumption to take that which is not given." After describing examples of the colonization of both land and soul in Scotland and Ireland, as well as resistance to corporate colonization in Nova Scotia, the 2015 Sunderland P. Gardner Lecturer presents a decolonizing theology for our times.
(37 pp) ($6.00)

Doing the Work: Finding the Meaning, by Kathleen Hertzberg (CANADIAN QUAKER PAMPHLET SERIES NO. 56, Argenta Friends Press, 2002) In this Sunderland P. Gardner Lecture the author describes growing up in pre-war England, living in Germany immediately before the declaration of war in 1939, being a pacifist during a major war, and later working at healing and reconciliation, as she discusses the spiritual basis for her own life of service.
(45 pp) ($4.00)

The Hidden Door: Mindful Sufficiency as an Alternative to Extinction, by Mark A. Burch. The Simplicity Institute, Melbourne. 2013. The Quaker Study Leader at Canadian Yearly Meeting in 2014 sees voluntary simplicity, or mindful sufficiency, as a hidden door in the constricting wall of consumer culture. He discusses simplicity with regard to technology, human rights, economy and education.
(271 pp) ($24.95)

In Search of a Moral Economy, by Marilyn Manzer. Sunderland P. Gardner Lecture, 2011. CANADIAN QUAKER PAMPHLET SERIES NO. 71. Argenta Press. Marilyn Manzer tells of her life and educational experiences in social economies and the teaching of music as she deplores the lack of morality and social inequity in our economic system.
(36 pp) ($6.00)

The Never Broken Treaty? by Sarah Chandler Sunderland P. Gardner Lecture, 2001, (Canadian Quaker Pamphlet Series #54, Argenta Friends Press, 2001). The author, writing from a life-long engagement with Aboriginal Peoples in North America, outlines Quaker witness and testimony with respect to Aboriginal title and rights, placing it within the context of the larger settler culture, showing both its promise and its failures.
(52 pp) ($4.00)

Nonviolent Direct Action as a Spiritual Path, by Richard K. Taylor, Pendle Hill Pamphlet 424. 2013. In the experience of this lifelong nonviolent activist, action for social justice is not only an expression of our spiritual values; the action itself may bring the participants new spiritual openings.
(36 pp) ($8.45)

SOCIAL WITNESS

Once Upon a Conflict: A Fairytale Manual of Conflict Resolution, by Tom Leimdorfer. Quaker Peace & Social Witness, London. 1992/2014. This revised edition imaginatively applies the practice of conflict resolution to five familiar tales. Also included are discussions of problem-solving techniques and the organization of conflict resolution workshops. (48 pp) ($10.00)

Perspectives on Friends Testimonies in Today's World, by Ursula Franklin (CANADIAN QUAKER PAMPHLET SERIES # 8, Argenta, 1979) The 1979 Sunderland P. Gardner Lecture on the importance of adhering to Truth in the face of institutionalized social problems. (12 pp) ($1.50)

Powerful Beyond Measure: The Legacy of Quaker Leadership in the 21st Century, by George Lakey, Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 2012 The author presents an analysis of class structure and urges Quakers to break out of the limiting influence of class so that we can be leaders in today's struggles for economic equality and environmental sustainability. (34 pp) ($9.75)

Revelation and Revolution: Answering the Call to Radical Faithfulness, by Steve Chase. Pendle Hill Pamphlet #431. 2015. The author's life goal since teen-age has been to be "a nonviolent revolutionary." Presenting Martin Luther King Jr.'s witness as an example, he urges Quakers to be "creatively maladjusted" to the inequality, greed and injustice of contemporary society. (36 pp) ($5.45)

Snakes and Ladders: A personal exploration of Quaker work on human rights at the United Nations, by Rachel Brett (The 2012 Swarthmore Lecture, Quaker Books, Friends House, London, UK, 2012.) The title illustrates the ups and downs of political human rights bodies at the United Nations especially at the Quaker UN Office in Geneva where Quaker concerns are expressed at an international level. The author is a human rights lawyer. (105 pp) ($20.00)

NEW!
This We Can Do: Quaker Faith in Action through the Alternative to Violence Program, by Sally Herzfeld et al. Quakers Australia. 2015. The 2015 Backhouse Lecturer describes the beginnings and developments of the Alternative to Violence Project. Based on a philosophy growing out of Christian, Gandhian and Quaker roots, it has spread from a prison workshop in 1975 to a variety of groups in 60 countries. Anecdotes make this history come alive. Colour photographs. (63 pp) ($18.00)

Twelve Quakers and Equality (Quaker Quest Pamphlet 7, London 2007) The seventh in this popular series of how 12 Friends have responded to Quaker ideals, with good insights and related practical experiences in a society becoming steadily more mixed. (40 pp) ($6.25)

Twelve Quakers and Simplicity (Quaker Quest Pamphlet 5, 2006) Twelve authors examine the meaning of simplicity in our complex world. (36 pp) ($6.25)

ENVIRONMENTAL CONCERNS

Climate, Food and Violence: Understanding the Connections, Exploring Responses, by Judy Lumb et al. Quaker Institute for the Future Pamphlet 8. 2014. Climate change can cause food and water shortages, which have the potential for provoking conflict. Actions are proposed to develop an ethic of right relationship, thus preventing or reducing violence. A useful list of acronyms is provided. (107 pp) ($10.00)

Costing Not Less than Everything, by Pam Lunn. Swarthmore Lecture 2011. Quaker Books, London, UK, 2011. The sub-heading "Sustainability and spirituality in challenging times" stresses very well our need, living as Quakers in our own as well as the world community, to protect the environment of our One Earth. (148 pp) ($20.00)

Every Bite Affects the World: An Earth Care Book for Joyful, Mindful Eating, by Catherine Verrall. Friesen Press, Victoria. 2014. Which fruits are most heavily sprayed with pesticides? Which fish are most endangered? Which grains are gluten-free? And how can we prepare all these foods in the most nutritious way? The Canadian Quaker author offers practical recipes plus a detailed reference text for an earth-sustaining diet. (239 pp) ($19.95)

ENVIRONMENTAL CONCERNS

Fueling our Future: A Dialogue about Technology, Ethics, Public Policy and Remedial Action, by Ed Dreby and Keith Helmuth, Quaker Institute for the Future: Pamphlet 1, 2009

This study provides information and informed analysis on energy options for our use of coal, bio-fuels, and nuclear power. Each source is discussed to show the assumptions behind the differing positions that people take and the policies behind them.

(67 pp) ($10.00)

Genetically Modified Crops: Promises, Perils and the Need for Public Policy,

by Anne Mitchell, Pinavur Rajagopal, Keith Helmuth and Susan Holtz, Quaker Institute of the Future Pamphlet 3, 2011.

The pamphlet accesses the record of genetically modified crops and the role of their regulation. The authors are members of Canadian Quaker Meetings. (68 pp) ($9.00)

How on Earth Do We Live Now? Natural Capital, Deep Ecology and the Commons, by David Ciscel, Barbara Day, Keith Helmuth, Sandra Lewis and Judy Lumb. Quaker Institute of the Future Pamphlet 2, 2011.

The title is “a cry of alarm and a call for action” to explore the essential parts of the Earth’s commons: property and water. The pamphlet presents a challenge to Quakers and others to rebuild environmental integrity.

(91 pp) ($10.00)

In the Love of Nature, by Steve Smith, S.E. Yearly Meeting Publications, Melbourne Beach, Florida. The Annual Michener Quaker Lecture, 2008.

Treating the current ecological crises as insufficient love for the earth and all life, the author draws from activists such as Keith Helmuth, Aldo Leopold, Henry Thoreau, Rachel Carson and Marshall Massey.

(36 pp) ($6.50)

It’s the Economy, Friends: Understanding the Growth Dilemma, edited by Ed Dreby, Keith Helmuth & Margaret Mansfield (Quaker Institute For The Future Pamphlet 5, 2012)

A collection of essays by the editors and others addressing the problems of unlimited economic growth on a finite planet. The first volume of a two-part Quaker publishing project.

(105 pp) ($10.00)

Muddling toward Simplicity, by Tom Findley (CANADIAN QUAKER PAMPHLET SERIES NO. 58, Argenta, 2003)

Tom Findley describes the intellectual, material and spiritual transformations which led him from a successful career as an industrial chemist in Chicago, to living, largely alone, in the woods of northwestern Ontario. His account is a mixture of hardship, hilarity, invention and unexpected help.

(32 pp) ($4.00)

A Quaker Testimony to the Earth?

by Suzanne Finch (Suzanne Finch, 2000) These quotations, queries and other materials for study by Meetings were compiled to respond to the question, “Is a new Quaker testimony — to creation and all life — evolving?” (98 pp) (spiral bound $6.25)

Right Relationship: Building a Whole Earth Economy,

by Peter G. Brown and Geoffrey Garver. Berret-Koehler Publisher, San Francisco, 2009.

Written by a cooperative group of Quaker writers for Quakers and non-Quakers alike, this highly recommended book provides an ethical and systematic approach for building our 21st century environment, economy and social conditions.

(216 pp) ($22.95)

NEW!

A Sustainable Life: Quaker Faith and Practice in the Renewal of Creation,

by Douglas Gwyn, FGC Quaker Press, 2014.

The word ‘sustainable’ is often used today in environmental contexts, but here its meaning is extended to all of life. The author begins with the historic Quaker concepts of Light and Seed and moves on to knowing and being, faith and practice. Quaker living is both spiritual and material; our faithfulness is with God, with one another and with the earth.

(178 pp) ($19.40)

QUAKER HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY

“The Best Man for Settling New Country”*: Journal of Timothy Rogers, edited by Christopher Densmore and Albert Schrauwers (Canadian Friends Historical Association, Monograph Series # Two, 2000).

This journal is two inter-connected stories. The first is an account of migration and settlement in the late 18th and early 19th centuries; the second the tale of the geographical expansion of North American Quakerism through the perspective of Timothy Rogers’ life. (157 pp) ($15.00)

Black Fire: African American Quakers on Spirituality and Human Rights, edited by Harold Weaver, Paul Kriese and Stephen W. Angell. Quaker Press of Friends General Conference, 2011.

A remarkable anthology of selections about and by eighteen black American authors, most of whom were active Quakers, living and writing from the late 18th century onwards. They speak of a broad diversity of experiences with Quakers and of race relations in the USA from the days of slavery until the 21st century. (252 pp) ($31.10)

Brought to Light: More Stories of Forgotten Women, edited by Bernadette Rule. Seraphim Editions. Niagara Falls ON. 2015.

Levi Coffin became famous as “President of the Underground Railroad,” but clearly he and his wife Catharine worked as a team. One story in this collection is Canadian Quaker Carol Leigh Wehking’s imagined account of Catharine’s leadership when the Coffins feed, clothe and shelter frightened escaping slaves and send them on to the next safe haven. (236 pp) ($19.95)

Canadian Friends Historical Association Newsletter

Back issues, subscriptions and memberships can be ordered through Canadian Friends Historical Association, email secretary@cfha.info.

The Essence of George Fox’s Journal, Edited by Hunter Lewis

Axion Press, Mt. Jackson VA, 2012. Here are selected passages by George Fox telling of his ministry, his travels, his beatings, his times in prison, and his refusal to take an oath or to remove his hat in greeting others. (260 pp) ($15.60)

Faithful Friend: William Cronyn McCheane, 1843-1923, by Leona Crabb (a descendant of McCheane) Self-published 2013.

Leona Crabb has used original family documents, photographs and drawings (79 reproduced in the book) to tell the story of the establishment of a Quaker community in Canada in Halcyonia and Borden in Saskatchewan at the beginning of the 20th century by W.C.McCheane and a group from England. Well-documented, with annexes of copies of original documents, correspondence, diaries, and reports. (406 pp) ($28.00)

Fit for Freedom, Not for Friendship: Quakers, African Americans and the Myth of Racial Justice, by Donna McDaniel and Vanessa Julye, Quaker Press of FGC, 2009.

Well researched, this study gives careful scrutiny and critique, both positive and negative, of the part played by American Quakers in the struggle of Blacks for freedom from slavery and for integration into the Religious Society of Friends. Extensive notes and index. (548 pp) ($36.40)

Friend: The Story of George Fox and the Quakers, by Jane Yolen.

Foreword by Larry Ingle. (Quaker Press of FGC, Philadelphia, Second Edition, 2005)

Based on Fox’s own Journals, this account of his life from a young man’s struggles with religion, through his life of ministry and persecution, is well-written for a young readership. A map shows places in England that have become well known in Quaker history. (120 pp) ($18.10)

Friends for 350 Years, by Howard H. Brinton (edited and updated by Margaret Hope Bacon) (Pendle Hill, 2002).

This is a revised version of Friends for 300 Years, retaining the original Howard Brinton text, as well as indicating in line notes where it is felt that the author would have changed the text himself in view of modern scholarship and sensibilities. In addition, the book includes an account of the major changes among Quakers in the last 50 years. The total is a comprehensive description of the birth of the Quaker movement, the role of Quaker thought and belief and its place in the history of religious thought, and other aspects of Quaker history and influence. (320 pp) ($20.80)

From My Demi-Paradise:

Memoirs, by Kathleen Schmitz-Hertzberg. Self-published, 2012. The author began her life of Quaker service in England. While on a Quaker mission to Germany before World War II, she met Fritz Hertzberg, a medical student. After the war they were reunited, were married and eventually immigrated to Canada, where her service with Friends continued. (298 pp) ($18.00)

QUAKER HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY

Genesee Friend: the Life and Times of Sunderland Pattison Gardner, by Betty Polster. Canadian Quaker Pamphlet No. 39, Argenta Friends Press, 1993.
Now back in stock. Sunderland P. Gardner gave his name to our annual Yearly Meeting lecture. A member of Genesee Yearly Meeting, he died in 1893. Genesee, Canada (Orthodox) and Canada (Conservative) Yearly Meetings united in 1955 to form Canadian Yearly Meeting. The pamphlet contains selections from his writings and events in his life.
(42 pp) ($3.00)

Jail Fire, by Julie C. Robinson. Buschek Books, Ottawa, 2013
The work of Elizabeth Fry in London's Newgate Prison during the early years of the 19th century was the inspiration for these poems, which poignantly express her encounters with the women prisoners. Based on careful research.
(61 pp) ($17.95)

John Woolman: pèlerin de l'absolu, by Violette Ansermoz, (Lausanne, 1972)
Biography and evaluation of John Woolman and his work (en français).
(96 pp) ($4.05)

Journal and Major Essays of John Woolman, edited by Phillips P. Moulton (FUP, 1989)
Scholarly work based on a thorough examination of all relevant manuscripts.
(336 pp) ($32.50)

The Journal of George Fox, edited by John Nickalls (Philadelphia YM, 1994)
The edition favoured by many Friends for their detailed study of George Fox's thought.
(789 pp) ($32.50)

Journey into Life: Inheriting the Story of Early Friends, by Gerald Hewitson. Quaker Books, London, 2013.
The Swarthmore Lecturer shows that the stories and writings of early Friends can inspire Friends today to experience "the searching that leads to a reorientation of our way of being based on a sense of loving purpose in our lives."
(61 pp) ($15.00)

A Lenape among the Quakers: The Life of Hannah Freeman, by Dawn G. Marsh. University of Nebraska Press, 2014.
Partly an imaginative reconstruction of a Native American woman's life, this book is better described as a study of relations between the Lenape people and the Quakers who settled their traditional territory at the end of the 17th century. Personal relations were respectful and friendly, but the Lenapes were inexorably dispossessed of their land.
(213 pp hard cover) ($35.10)

The Long Road that Led Me to Quakers, by Edward Abbott, Canadian Yearly Meeting, 2012.
Ed Abbott tells of his treatment as a conscientious objector in the early days of World War II in Canada as he was finishing his medical training. In 1944 he went to China with the Friends Ambulance Unit. After the war he and his wife Vivien practiced medicine in rural India.
(27 pp) ($5.00)

A Measure of Light, by Beth Powning. Alfred A. Knopf Canada, 2015.

Mary Dyer was hanged on Boston Common in 1660 for disobeying the Puritan law against preaching her Quaker faith. This well-told account of her life, her conviction and her determination is based on the available historical records, presented in the form of a novel.
(324 pp hard cover) ($29.95)

The Night is Full of Stars, by Friedrich Schmitz-Herzberg. Translated by Kathleen & Evelyn Herzberg, Sessions of York, 2009.
A remarkable account of a German physician as a prisoner of war, 1945-49 in the Soviet Union. He later became a Quaker.
(178 pp) ($25.00)

Portrait in Grey, by John Punshon (Quaker Books, London, 2006)
This is a new edition of a popular study of the distinctive history and way of life of Quakers as the Religious Society of Friends developed and expanded around the world, and it describes how Friends have contributed to intellectual, business and social life. It contains a new foreword, new passages, and an up-to-date section on the later 20th century.
(320 pp) ($30.00)

NEW!
Quaker Odyssey: The Migration of Quaker Whalers, by Maida Barton Follini, Dartmouth Heritage Museum, 2007.
At the time of the American Revolution the Quaker whalers of Nantucket Island suffered persecution because their consciences did not permit them to support either side. Some settled in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia and some moved to Wales but later returned. Of special interest to Quakers, this colourfully illustrated booklet makes a contribution to Canadian historical scholarship.
(26 pp) ($8.00)

QUAKER HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY

The Quakers in Canada, by Arthur G. Dorland (Ryerson, 1968)
The essential history book about Friends in Canada.
(360 pp) (hardback $22.00)

This I Warn You In Love: Witness of Some Early Quaker Women
by Catie Gill and Elaine Hobby The Kindlers, Booklet 6. 2013
After first describing the calamitous social scene that followed England's civil war, the authors include passages from the writings of eleven 17th century Quaker women. An enclosed CD permits listeners to hear their stories spoken by a modern interpreter.
(44 pp) ($7.50)

RELIGION

Barclay's Apology in Modern English, edited by Dean Freiday (Barclay, 1991)
Classic systematic statement of Quaker faith.
(465 pp) ($41.90)

But Who Do You Say That I Am? Quakers and Christ Today, by Douglas Gwyn
The Kindlers, Booklet 7. 2013
After an overview of various perspectives on Christ among Foundationist, Conservative, Ecumenical, Interfaith, Universalist Non-Theist Quakers, twelve of the Kindlers team express their personal views.
(56 pp) ($7.50)

Deep Roots: A Fresh Look at the Origins of Some Quaker Ideas, by Simon Webb
Quaker Bookshop, London, UK 2007
The author refers to the literature of, and about, the time of George Fox to examine the influences of mysticism and anti-clericalism in Fox's teachings. Good list of references.
(44 pp) ($10.00)

Faith, Hope and Doubt in Times of Uncertainty, by George Ellis. James Backhouse Lecture, Australia Yearly Meeting, 2008
This thoughtful lecture by a Professor Emeritus of Applied Mathematics who is a popular academic speaker combines the scientific and spiritual inquiry of moral reality in human life. A challenge to all.
(57 pp) ($9.90)

God Answers Back: helped by the Seeker and Vernon Mullen, Self-published, Ottawa, 2011.
The author examines different names and views of the Divine and presents his own of God as BEING, ONE who obeys the physical laws of the universe. Some idols of religion are discussed, on each of which God answers back. A final section tells of the Seeker's own Search until he finally becomes a Quaker.
(96 pp) ($10.00)

God Just Is: Approaches to Silent Worship, by Kurt Gardner, Quaker Books, Friends House, London, UK., 2012.
The author blends descriptions of other traditions of silent worship with his own 60 years' experience as a Quaker, along with practical guidance in one's search for the Being of God.
(146 pp) ($22.10)

Godless for God's Sake: Nontheism in Contemporary Quakerism, ed by David Boulton (Quaker Books, 2006)
Quakers from 13 Yearly Meetings tell how they combine committed membership in the Religious Society of Friends with rejection of traditional belief in a transcendent, personal God.
(146 pp) ($23.75)

La Lumière intérieure, source de vie, par Robert Barclay (Éditions Dervy, 1993)
"Apologie de la vraie théologie Chrétienne telle qu'elle est professée et prêchée par ce peuple appelé par mépris les Quakers." Traduit de l'anglais par Georges Liens.
(431 pp) ($16.00)

Paths of Faith in the Landscape of Science: Three Quakers Check Their Compass, by George M. Strunz, Michael R. Miller, Keith Helmuth. Chapel Street Editions, Woodstock, NB. 2014.
After a brief historical overview of ideas about the relation between religion and science, three Canadian Friends explain their personal perspectives. They have found that integrating scientific knowledge into their understanding of life has enriched their sense of the sacred.
(121 pp) ($15.00)

RELIGION

Quakerism: A Theology for Our Time, by Patricia A. Williams, (Sessions of York, 2007).

A philosopher of science, the author explains for general readers the Inward Light as found in Barclay and George Fox and how it is uniquely suited for our time. (198 pp) ($18.15)

Rooted in Christianity, Open to New Light: Quaker Spiritual Diversity, by Timothy Ashworth and Alex Wildwood, Pronoun Press and Woodbroke Quaker Study Centre, London, 2009.

A remarkable and valuable unity is reached by Ashworth, once an Anglican and then a Roman Catholic, and Wildwood, a scientific rationalist, as they come together now as Quakers to examine the spectrum of unprogrammed Quaker beliefs, worship and practices in Britain and to agree on a mysterious Reality to guide us as individuals and in our community. (115 pp) ($23.40)

Signposts: Quakers Exploring Interfaith, by Eva Tucker and Stephanie Ramamurthy, The Kindlers, London, 2013.

A study of interfaith relations and interactions in Britain. Section 2 is an exploration from a Christian viewpoint of non-Christian religions and the Quaker Way. (69 pp) ($7.50)

To be Broken and Tender: a Quaker Theology for Today, by Margery Post Abbott. Friends Bulletin Corp., Western Friends, USA, 2010.

A down-to-earth study of Quaker theology expressed as the day-to-day experiences of an unprogrammed Quaker. The author is a scientist, lecturer and writer. (242 pp) ($26.00)

Twelve Quakers and Evil (Quaker Quest Pamphlet 4, 2006).

Twelve authors reflect on different aspects of evil and Quaker reactions to them. (36 pp) ($6.25)

Twelve Quakers and Faith (Quaker Quest Pamphlet 8, 2009).

In this popular series, twelve Quakers of differing backgrounds examine what faith means in their lives. (36 pp) ($6.25)

Twelve Quakers and God, by Quaker Quest (Quaker Quest Pamphlet 1, 2004).

In 2003 members of the Quaker Quest team (Britain Yearly Meeting) agreed to share their experience of the divine. This pamphlet expresses what twelve Quakers at the start of the twenty-first century understand to be at the heart of their faith. (32 pp) ($6.25)

Twelve Quakers and Jesus

(Quaker Quest Pamphlet 6, 2007)
Another in this series by 12 thoughtful authors on the place of Jesus/Christ in the Quaker faith. (36 pp) ($6.25)

Twelve Quakers and Truth

(Quaker Quest Pamphlet 9, 2013)
Twelve Quakers in this popular series explore, sometimes with humour, what they mean by living with integrity in both action and reflection. (40 pp) ($6.25)

Universalism and Religions Quaker Universalist Reader

Number 2, edited by Patricia A. Williams. (Quaker Universalist Fellowship, 2007)
Selections from the writings of 36 authors, including Canadian Quakers Elizabeth Beguin and Lynne Phillips, examine the meaning of the universalist Divine Light, the "perennial philosophy" of the divine presence in humankind, as found in Quakerism, Christianity, and the other great world religions. (181 pp) ($22.00)

Who do you say I am? by Lloyd Lee Wilson. PHP 409. 2010.

This lecture was presented by the author in a series in which Friends from five different branches of Quakerism spoke on what Jesus meant to them in answering this question which Jesus posed to his disciples. (31 pp) ($8.45)

INWARD LIFE

Answering That of God:

Discovering the Spirit Within,
by Peter Parr, The Kindlers, London,
UK 2012.

The author presents inspiring, practical, spiritual practices and attitudes which can lead one to understand that of God within ourselves and in everything.
(45 pp) ($7.50)

Breakthrough to Unity: the Quaker Way held within the mystic traditions, by Roswitha Jarman. The Kindlers, a project of the NW London Area Quaker Meeting, Britain Yearly Meeting, 2010.

This small study searches for the "essence of the spirit within" through reports of mystics: Quakers, Muslim Sufis, Buddhists, and Meister
Eckhart, all in the process of learning to "Know Thyself".
(49 pp) ($7.50)

Dark Night Journey, by Sandra Cronk, Pendle Hill Publications,
Wallingford PA 1991 (this edition, 2005)

Sub-titled Inward Re-patterning Towards a Life Centered in God, this book describes those who have a growing sense of the divine presence but find themselves in "a dark night of the soul". This study can explain this stage as part of one's spiritual growth.
(179 pp) ($16.25)

The Door In, by Renee Crauder.
Pendle Hill Pamphlet 430. 2014.

The author, a Quaker spiritual director, who has led many retreats on the spiritual life, describes the Quaker and Jesuit practices she has followed in her own search for a profound experience of Divine Love.
(36 pp) ($5.45)

Encounter with Silence,

by John Punshon (QHS, 1987)
A description of the uniqueness of Quaker faith and practice and its relation to the traditions of the wider Christian church.
(131 pp) ($19.50)

Grief, Forgiveness, and Redemption as a Way of

Transformation, by Elaine Pryce,
PHP #416, 2012

The author explores the spiritual aspects of grief, recovery from grief, and the blessings of acceptance.
Discussion questions are included.
(35 pp) ($8.45)

Heartfulness: Renewing Heart, Mind and Spirit on Retreat and

Beyond, by Valerie Brown, PHP
#421, 2013

Valerie Brown introduces us to opportunities for personal restoration from busyness of life with silence and retreat to explore such things as meaning and purpose in our lives.
(36 pp) ($8.45)

A Hidden Wholeness: The Journey Toward an Undivided

Life, by Parker J Palmer (Jossey-Bass, 2004).

Today many people live lives that are not congruent with their inner truth. The author describes how working in "circles of trust" can help them to reclaim their integrity and begin to foster wholeness in their workplaces and their world.
(208 pp) ($23.95)

Holiness in the Everyday, by David Cadman, Quaker Bookshop, London,
UK. 2009.

In sections on Love, Simplicity, Peace and Prayer, the author weaves references from Quaker, Christian and Buddhist literature to explain how love can sustain the holy in our daily lives in relationships with others and with the environment. List of related references.
(88 pp) ($17.50)

Holy Silence: The Gift of Quaker
Spirituality, by T. Brent Bill

(Paraclete Press, Brewster, MA 2006)

Here is an eloquent introduction to spirituality, through silence, as a pathway to God. Using everyday, wide-ranging, historical and humorous references, the author's insights can help any person sitting in a Quaker meeting to understand better and partake of the silence.
(147 pp) ($20.70)

John Yungblut: Passing the Mystical Torch, by Charles C. Finn,
PHP #417, 2012

Influenced by mystical thinkers through the ages, John Yungblut became a spiritual guide to the author, Charles Finn, a former Jesuit, who became a Quaker. Yungblut emphasizes direct consciousness of the Divine Presence in
"the heart and core of all true religion."
(36 pp) ($8.45)

The Practice of the Love of God,
by Kenneth Boulding (PHP #374, 2004)

In a message which resonates for us today though it was first spoken more than 50 years ago, the author dares us to see the divine-likeness in every person, practising the love of God in daily life.
(32 pp) ($6.50)

INWARD LIFE

Queries as Prayers, by Ron B. Rembert, Pendle Hill Pamphlet 423. 2013.

The author learned that focussing on a Quaker query deepened his prayer life and also gave him a greater appreciation of the Quaker tradition of responding to queries.
(36 pp) ($8.45)

Reclaiming the Transcendent: God in Process, by Thomas Gates, Pendle Hill Pamphlet 422, 2013.

The author presents process theology as another way of understanding God, more congruent with science and Quaker spirituality, in which God becomes “an activity... rather than a being who exists somewhere.”
(36 pp) ($8.45)

NEW!

Recovering Sacred Presence in a Disenchanted World, by Mary Conrow Coelho. Pendle Hill Pamphlet #433. 2015.

The author, who has an academic background in both science and theology, claims that one can find explanations in modern scientific discoveries for numinous experiences. Quantum theory, she reasons, brings the study of the non-visible inner world into the realm of science.
(34 pp) ($5.45)

Sacred Compass, by J. Brent Bill, Paraclete Press, Brewster, Mass. 2008. “How do you discover God’s will in your life every day” is a question here answered in “The Way of Spiritual Discernment”.
(192 pp) ($25.90)

Sanctuary of the Soul: Selected Writings of Thomas Kelly,

by Thomas Kelly (Upper Room Spiritual Classics, 1997)
Thomas Kelly became interested in philosophy after a meeting with Rufus Jones, the great Quaker theologian and historian. Speaking and writing from his own career experiences as a student, teacher and missionary, Kelly gives very practical advice for beginners in prayer. He emphasizes the link between mystical experience and service that relieves human suffering.
(72 pp) ($7.80)

Some Fruits of Solitude,

by William Penn (Herald Press, 2003)
A classic of Quaker literature, edited into today’s English by Eric K. Taylor.
(167 pp) ($8.95)

Testament of Devotion, by Thomas Kelly (Harper, 1996)
A classic of Christian mysticism by a Quaker speaking from the quiet centre discovered after much personal search and pain.
(130 pp) ($17.95)

Universalism and Spirituality, edited by Patricia A. Williams, Quaker Universalist Reader Number 3, Quaker Universalist Fellowship, Columbia, Maryland 2007.

A valuable source of spiritual wisdom, six sections by 41 contributors deal with God, spiritual experiences and spirituality in mysticism and science.
(190 pp) ($22.00)

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Allen Jay and the Underground Railroad, by Marlene Targ Brill (Carolrhoda Books, 1993)

At the age of 11 Allen Jay, who lived with his Quaker family in Ohio during the 1840s, helped Henry James to elude pursuing slave hunters. Beautifully illustrated. For ages 4-8.
(32 pp) ($7.75)

Dear Benjamin Banneker, by Andrea Davis Pinkney, illustrated by Brian Pinkney, (Harcourt Brace & Company, 1998)
A look at the life and times of Benjamin Banneker, 18th century astronomer, mathematician, author of the first published almanac by a Black man and attender of Quaker meeting, as he decides to take a stand against slavery.
(28 pp) ($9.10)

Eight of a Kind, by Betty M. Hockett (Barclay, 1988)
Stories for young people of eight early Quakers and their commitment to their faith.
(148 pp) ($9.75)

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Glory Boy, by E.J. Goodden. (Self-published, printed by The Aylmer Express Ltd., 2000)

Canadian Quaker Ted Goodden, a stained glass artist, has produced this charming, mythical folktale, beautifully illustrated with lino prints, stained glass windows and collage, with a message of concern for the earth. Aimed at adults as well as children, it would make a lovely gift.
(39 pp) ($20.00)

Nurturing Children's Spiritual Well-Being, by Margaret

Crompton, PHP # 419. 2012. The author deals with four Quaker testimonies: Equality, Simplicity, Truth and Peace, each with practical suggestions on how to present them to children with stories and simple explanations.
(36 pp) ($8.45)

A Piece of Forever, by Laurel Dee Gugler, James Lorimer & Co., Toronto, 2008.

Amid taunts from schoolmates who scorn her family's conscientious objection stance, ten-year-old Rose struggles to determine her own beliefs. The story takes place after the Korean War as Rose's class prepares to honour Veterans on Remembrance Day.
(164 pp) ($8.95)

Picturing Alyssa, by Alison Lohans

Dundurn, Toronto, 2011. Alyssa, a teen-aged Quaker girl, tormented by a school bully and a teacher unsympathetic to her pacifist beliefs, studies a 75-year old family photo of her great-grandmother's Quaker farming family, makes magic visits to them, and writes her experiences for a school project.
(212 pp) ($12.95)

The Quaker Way

(Australia YM, revised by Religious Education Committee of FGC 1958, rev. 1998) A neat introduction to Quakerism, illustrated.
(96 pp) ($11.60)

Quaking, by Kathryn Erskine. The Penguin Group ("Speak"), Toronto, 2007.

A moving novel for young and old of an intelligent but mistreated teen-aged girl, taken in by a Quaker family. She uses some tough street language as she gradually overcomes her fears and lack of trust in people while she seeks to promote peace in modern wars in the East in her school work.
(238 pp) ($10.00)

Rachel and Obadiah, by Brinton Turkle, Beautiful Feet Books, Sandwich, MA 1978.

Obadiah learns another lesson, good for adults as well as children, as sailing ships return from whaling and trading to his Nantucket community. Well illustrated.
(28 pp) ($10.30)

Thee, Hannah! by Marguerite de Angeli, (Herald Press, 2000; original copyright 1940)

Nine-year-old Hannah, a Quaker in Philadelphia just before the Civil War, longs to have some fashionable dresses like other girls, but comes to appreciate her heritage and its plain dressing when her family saves the life of a runaway slave.
(99 pp) ($20.65)

Thy Friend, Obadiah, by Brinton Turkle (Puffin Books, 1969)

The charming coloured illustrations and text bring the young Quaker boy, Obadiah, to life as he deals with the attentions of a sea gull who embarrasses him by following him everywhere - to the wharf, to his home, even to Meeting.
(32 pp) ($8.95)

The Witch of Blackbird Pond, by Elizabeth George Speare (Bantam Doubleday Dell first published, 1958) This is an historical narrative of Kit Tyler, a young Caribbean girl transplanted to live with relatives in a Connecticut colony. Her rebellion against bigotry and her Puritan surroundings ends in a witch hunt and trial.

(249 pp) ($8.95)

SONG BOOKS

Rise Up Singing, by Peter Blood and Annie Patterson

(Sing Out Loud 1988, 1992)

An almost-classic for any group of singing Friends. Words and chords for many, many songs.

(281 pp) (spiral bound $29.80)

NEW!

Sing in the Spirit: A Book of

Quaker Songs. The Leaveners. 2nd printing. Thetford, Great Britain. 2012.

This is a bountiful cornucopia of 192 songs Quakers have chosen to sing:

hymns, spirituals, rounds, chants, choral works and more, with piano (or other instrumental) accompaniments. For some selections versions are provided in languages other than English, such as French, Spanish or German.

(Spiralbound $22.50)

Worship in Song: a Friends

Hymnal, (Quaker Press of FGC, Philadelphia. 1997)

Music and words for over 300 familiar hymns and songs. (The spiral bound version is no longer available.)

(404 pp) (hardback $28.00)

FICTION AND HUMOUR

Emma Field (Book One),

by Carol Williams (Journey Publishing, Merrickville ON, 2007)

Book One of a planned series of novels for adults as well as young people is the story of Emma, growing up in a pioneer Quaker family in the mid-1800's on a farm on the shores of Lake Ontario. The author, an attender at Ottawa Meeting, portrays well the expressions and problems of a young woman facing life in an early Quaker and Methodist community in Canada.

(309 pp) (soft cover $20.00)

Emma Field (Book Two),

by Carol Williams, Journey Publishing, Merrickville, ON, 2009.

Emma as a young adult continues her life in a 19th century mixed community of Conservative and Hicksite Quakers in Dutchess County, New York. She meets Lucretia Mott and other leaders in their fight against slavery and for women's rights. A novel with good Quaker background for young and old. (272 pp)

($24.95)

Emma Field (Book Three),

by Carol Williams, Journey Publishing, Merrickville, ON, 2013.

The third and final novel of the trilogy in which Emma works with Six Nations Indians and the settling of coloured slaves in south-west Ontario just before the Civil War in the U.S.A. She has new adventures and experiences in New York and Pennsylvania where she meets Lucretia Mott again, as well as Frederick Douglass and other black leaders of the day and becomes reconciled with her husband and her own past.

(208 pp) ($24.95)

Flight to the Frontier, by Ruth

Zavitz. Chronicle Publishing, Edmonton. 2014.

During the War of American Independence a young Quaker girl's heart is captivated by the charms of a youth who leaves the Quaker community to join the British forces. She defiantly refuses to marry the older Quaker her family chooses for her. The author leaves us in suspense, wondering about her fate, until the final pages.

(244 pp) ($17.00)

Forged in the Fire, by Ann Turnbull, Candlewick Press, Cambridge, MA, 2007

A sequel novel to No Shame No Fear, it continues the story of Will Heywood's struggles in 1665-66 London after his father disowns him for becoming a Quaker. Overcoming twists of fate and threats of the plague, Will finally succeeds in his romance with Susanna. A good read for young people

(312 pp) (hardback $21.00)

No Shame, No Fear, by Ann

Turnbull (Candlewick Press, Cambridge, Massachusetts, 2004).

This novel, written for young readers, shows what life was like for Quakers living in England in the seventeenth century. It tells the story of Susanna and William, for whom the course of true love runs even less smoothly than usual. Susanna comes from a Quaker family. William is a product of the establishment, has just finished his studies and is about to be apprenticed to a wine merchant in London. We see the narrative unfolding through the alternating viewpoints of William and Susanna, and this allows us access to every part of a society which is both complex and fascinating.

(293 pp) ($11.70)

FICTION AND HUMOUR

The Sun of Quaker Laughter

Compiled by William K. Sessions
(William Sessions Ltd., 2002)
This is a collection of light-hearted selections taken from historical documents or from more recent sources:
pictures, cartoons, malapropisms, Spoonerisms, Quakers poking fun at themselves.
(118 pp) ($17.50)

THE ARTS

Balancing, by Helen Stevenson.

Argenta Friends School. 1980.
Back in print is this well-illustrated booklet are descriptions of forty single, double and multiple formations.
(89 pp) ($15.00)

Observations on War and other

poems, by Bonnie Day. Canadian Quaker Pamphlet No. 20. Argenta
Friends Press, 1984.
Back in stock is this popular book of poems by Bonnie Day, a Toronto Quaker, writer, poet, journalist and active participant in the Civil Rights and Peace movements.
(46 pp) ($4.00)

LIFE IN COMMUNITY

Beyond the Growth Dilemma: Toward an Ecologically Integrated Economy, ed. by Ed Dreby and Judy Lumb, Quaker Institute for the Future Pamphlet 6. 2012.

“Globally we are using approximately one and a half times Earth’s biocapacity to renew resources and absorb pollution.” The need to reform our monetary, financial and economic systems is explained and workable solutions are proposed.
(101 pp) ($10.00)

Building the Life of the Meeting

24th annual Michener Lecture by William and Frances Taber, Southeastern Yearly Meeting, Florida, 1994.

The authors explain how, by working together as a body in a community, participants can develop meaningful
Quaker worship and action.
(24 pp) ($7.80)

A Community of Friends: The Quakers at Borden, by Betty Ward (Hagios, 2004).

A portrait of life and human relationships among the Quakers who settled a Saskatchewan farming community and formed the Halcyonia Meeting.
(125 pp) ($14.95)

Creating Spiritual Community: An Introductory Guide for Friends who are Geographically Isolated and Wish to Start or Revitalize a Quaker Worship Group

by Jane Orion Smith (HMAC, 1999)
A practical guide that includes ideas for spiritual nourishment.
(12 pp)(Free; quantity orders accepted)

Dealing with Difficult Behaviour in Meeting for Worship

(FGC Ministry and Nurture Committee 2002)

What can the Meeting community do when someone disrupts the worship?
This pamphlet suggests ways of “meeting the needs of the many while responding to the needs of the few.”
Originally published under the title The Wounded Meeting.
(27 pp) ($10.40)

Going Forward Experimentally,

by Dana Mullen
(CANADIAN QUAKER PAMPHLET SERIES
NO. 59, Argenta, 2004)
The story of challenges and joys experienced in the first 25 years of the present Quaker Book Service as it offers its “ministry of books.”
(35 pp) ($4.00)

LIFE IN COMMUNITY

Growing the Blessed Community: Outreach and 'Inreach' Ideas for your Meeting, by Jane Orion Smith (HM&C, 1999)

Ideas for activities to inform, create and explore what we value in Quaker community, how we approach membership and how our community can be welcoming for all. (10 pp)

(Free; quantity orders accepted)

How Does Societal Transformation Happen? Values Development, Collective Wisdom, and Decision Making for the Common Good

by Leonard Joy, Quaker Institute for the Future Pamphlet 4. 2011.

Changes in society depend first on the development of a higher order of values by individuals. The time-tried practices of a Quaker business meeting could be effectively used in secular institutions for the common good. (85 pp)

($10.00)

An Inner Strength: Quakers and Leadership, ed. Kathy Hyzy. Friends Bulletin Corporation. 2013.

Twenty-one contemporary American Friends recount their experiences of responding to a call to be a leader. The inner strength needed for effective and compassionate action arises from faithful listening followed by the practice of discernment. (145 pp)

($25.00)

NEW!

Leadership and Authority in the Religious Society of Friends, by Arthur Larrabee. Southeastern YM. Second printing. 2007.

Communities need leadership, which the author describes as a spiritual gift. The "power model" of leadership is contrasted with the "Quaker model," in which everyone present in a meeting is thinking about the meeting as if he or she were the clerk. (24 pp)

($5.20)

Living Eldership: A Journey of Discovery, by Jenny Routledge.

Quaker Books, London. 2014. The author, a British Quaker, has recorded here the stages in her protracted efforts to understand the nature and practice of eldership. At the heart of the concept, she concludes, is nurture: supporting others to find their own ministry, whatever that might be. A detailed guide for a 7-session course in eldership is included. (spiralbound, 120 pp)

($20.00)

Matthew 18: Wisdom for Living in Community, by Connie McPeak

Green and Marty Paxton Grundy, PHP #399, 2008.

An examination of Jesus' advice and guidance for getting along with one another, not only among Quakers but in the wider community. With discussion questions. (36 pp)

($8.45)

Meeting, by Deborah E. Haight, Canadian Quaker Pamphlet No 67, Argenta Friends Press, 2008.

Back in print is this landmark Sunderland P. Gardner lecture of 1987 in which the speaker elaborates on what the word "Meeting" means to Quakers. Deborah Haight (1911-2004) was a birthright Canadian Quaker, long active in Ottawa and Yearly Meetings. (50 pp)

($7.50)

Members One of Another,

by Thomas Gates (PHP #371, 2004)

The author explores the gradual process of moving from being an attender, with an individual identity, to becoming a member of a Quaker meeting, and identifying oneself as part of the community. He discusses the complex balance between the rights and needs of individuals and the demands of community life, and explores the meeting as a place first of acceptance; then, of shared values; next, as a place of transformation; and finally as a place of obedience. (40 pp)

($8.45)

Moving into Membership

(Quaker Books, 2001)

Volume 8 of the Eldership and Oversight handbook series from Britain YM. It explores how an attender might move towards becoming a member and how the Meeting can foster that process. (70 pp)

($7.50)

A Quaker Approach to Research: Collaborative Practice and Communal Discernment, by Gray

Cox et al. Quaker Institute for the Future Pamphlet 7. 2014.

This pamphlet describes experiences of applying Quaker practices of group decision-making and action to research in contexts such as public policy and academic study. (83 pp)

($10.00)

Spirit-led Eldering, by Margery Mears Larrabee. (PHP #392, Wallingford, PA, 2007)

Eldering is seen as a process of helping one another, not as criticizing, in our community of friends/Friends. The section on "Eldering Today" is especially useful, along with topics for discussion. (36 pp)

($7.50)

Spiritual reviews: Reviewing the spiritual life of the meeting and its expression in caring

Vol.3 of the Eldership and Oversight handbook series. Quaker Books, London. 2012.

This new text is a resource and practical guide for Friends intending to "take stock" of their own meeting. (33 pp)

($10.00)

LIFE IN COMMUNITY

NEW!

Tracking Down Ecological Guidance: Presence, Beauty, Survival, by Keith Helmuth. Chapel Street Editions. Woodstock, NB 2015. This collection of a Canadian Quaker's essays and lectures represents a lifetime of serious thought and action regarding ecological issues. Here brought up to date, they bring together his thinking on science, technology, education, economics and our environment, as well as the contribution of the arts, especially music, to the well-being of human beings.
(273 pp) ($24.00)

Where the Wind Blows: Vitality Among Friends by Jay W. Marshall

(Earlham School of Religion, Richmond, IN, 2005)
A follow-up to an earlier consultation published as Among Friends, this book reports the result of a survey of nine varied groups of Friends across the USA to try to answer two questions: Why does one Quaker Meeting thrive for generations and another not? Why does one show growth and another dwindle? The study has two primary goals: to share positive views of worship and ministry and to create a resource for friends/Friends needing help in their own search for vitality.
(169 pp) ($17.90)

FAMILY

Marriage and Commitment: Includes Sections on Separation and Divorce

(Southeastern Yearly Meeting, 2006)
Prepared during a decade of consideration as part of Faith and Practice of the SEYM, this pamphlet presents a studied process for Quaker Marriage and commitment, with brief sections on separation and divorce.
(27 pp) ($6.00)

Paths to Quaker Parenting, edited by Harriet Heath. Conrow Publishing House, Haverford, 2009 (a project of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting: Quaker Parenting Initiative).

A mixed group of parents met during a three-year period to consider their questions and experiences in using Quaker beliefs, testimonies and practices in dealing with their children, especially teenagers. A useful report for parents.
(122 pp) ($19.40)

PERSONAL SPIRITUAL EXPERIENCES

The Barn at the End of the World, by Mary Rose O'Reilly

(Milkweed Editions, 2000)
This Quaker author light heartedly describes her work with sheep in a barn and her extended visit to a Buddhist monastery in France seeking a spirituality based on existing fully in the world.
(317 pp) ($23.40)

NEW!

A Death Chosen, A Life Given, by Hannah Russell. Pendle Hill Pamphlet #432. 2015.

After receiving an unexpected diagnosis of terminal illness, the author's beloved husband committed suicide. She describes her initial numbing shock, her search for meaning and her slow healing. She encourages Friends to be willing to face the legal, ethical and moral questions related to the taking of one's own life.
(30 pp) ($5.45)

Discovering God as Companion, by Mariellen Gilpen, editor, Author House, Bloomington, IN, 2007)

Seventy brief accounts drawn from the quarterly newsletter What Canst Thou Say? reveal the personal mystical experiences and contemplative practices of some modern Quakers in story and poem.
(159 pp) ($20.70)

PERSONAL SPIRITUAL EXPERIENCES

The Heron Spirals: A

Commonplace Book, by Caroline Balderston Parry, Self-published 2013. A collection of personally memorable thoughts, diary selections, poems, and songs. The author has spread them through four “spirals” of her adult life, as she gained inspiration from watching great blue herons, the motif of her book. Well-illustrated with paintings of herons and other birds.
(176 pp) ($20.00)

The I Don't Know Place: Holy Spirit With Me Always

by Caroline Balderston Parry
Canadian Quaker Learning Series #4. 2013.
Being in the I Don't Know Place is the author's way of expressing uncertainty in our spiritual lives. In this 2013 Sunderland P. Gardner Lecture she shows that waiting patiently in that place can deepen our awareness of the Holy Spirit's presence with us.
(35 pp) ($6.00)

Guests of My Life

by Elizabeth Watson (Celo, 1979)
The author describes the work of six writers and how their insights helped her to work through her grief at her daughter's death.
(172 pp) ($19.50)

Listening Spirituality. Volume I: Personal Spiritual Practices among Friends

by Patricia Loring (Openings, 1997)
A rich resource for individuals who are seeking to deepen their spiritual journey and for groups to support each other in sharing their experiences.
(207 pp) ($23.40)

Listening Spirituality. Volume II: Corporate Spiritual Practice among Friends

by Patricia Loring (Openings, 1999)
This second volume examines Quaker communal practice in meeting and other gatherings. It draws on Quaker historical material, modern experience, bibliography, to provide an excellent resource for the practice of Quakerism in community.
(300 pp) ($30.00)

The Power We Call God: threshings matter for Quaker visioning

by Frank Parkinson. The Kindlers. London, UK, 2011.
The author examines what we mean to be Quakers, with our belief in that of God in all, in our awareness of the Divine as Being, personal and cosmic consciousness. In a process he calls entheism, we are all challenged to renew ourselves. The Kindlers, as publishers, are well-named.
(45 pp) ($7.50)

DISCIPLINES AND DIRECTORIES

Advices and Queries

(Britain YM, 1995)

A personal and corporate tool for spiritual discipline. RECOMMENDED FOR ENQUIRERS.

(24 pp)

($1.00)

NEW!

Advices and Queries, Britain YM, 1995.

Bound copy. Especially recommended for gifts and frequent use.

($15.00)

REMINDER

Christian Faith and Practice

(London YM, 1960; reprints to 1988)

This foundational collection for Quakers is still available. Very good for all members and attenders to explore and understand our faith. 677 short, selected inspiration passages; sources and references.

(hardback $9.75)

Faith and Practice: Canadian Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends

Ottawa, Canada. 2011.

IT'S HERE: Our Canadian book of Faith and Practice with a total of 389 selected extract passages, many written by Canadian Quakers. Comprehensive index. Illustrated.

(250 pp)

(hardback $31.00; softback $22.95)

A Handbook for the Presiding Clerk

by David O. Stanfield

(North Carolina YM, 1989)

An introduction to the distinctive processes of Quaker business meetings, and a guide to Friends serving as clerks.

(20 pp)

($5.20)

Organization and Procedure

(CYM, 2002)

One component of the Canadian Yearly Meeting Discipline.

(154 pp)

(cerlox bound $5.00)

Quaker Faith and Practice

(Britain YM, 1995)

The Book of Discipline of Britain Yearly Meeting.

(667 pp)

(softback $22.95)

Unforeseen Joy

by Damon D. Hickey

(North Carolina YM, 1987)

A manual for recording clerks with sample minutes, and a section on preservation.

(35 pp)

($13.00)

Where Should I Stand? A Field Guide for Monthly Meeting Clerks

by Elizabeth Boardman, Quaker Press of FGC, Philadelphia, 2008.

Every clerk, Monthly Meeting or Committee should read this book to understand good Quaker process.

(132 pp)

($16.25)

SALE ITEMS LIMITED QUANTITIES

LIMITED TIME

The following titles are on sale as long as present stocks last.

Arrowhead to Hand Axe: In Search of Ecological Guidance,

by Keith Helmuth (Sunderland P. Gardner Lecture, 2004, Canadian Quaker Pamphlet Series #60, 2004). The author combines his experiences of an agrarian, woodland childhood; the Mennonite culture of community service; an environmental education; a career in community development, and a farming business, with the Quaker ethos to describe an ecological world perspective.
(44 pp) (Was $4.00; Now $2.00)

Awake and Aware: Reflections on Friends and Civil Disobedience,

by Kenneth C. Hone (CANADIAN QUAKER PAMPHLET SERIES NO. 70, Argenta Friends Press, 2011) This essay was inspired by police reactions to peaceful demonstrations in Toronto in 2010 at the time of the G8/G20 Conference. Violence and civil disobedience are defined and examples are discussed.
(17 pp) (Was $6.00; Now $3.00)

Being in the Middle by Being at the Edge: Quaker experience of non-official political mediation, by Sue and Steve Williams. (Sessions, York, 1994) A valuable guide for Quakers and others involved in mediation in conflicts, large or small, and for the general public to understand the process. It is based on the service of the authors in such places as Northern Ireland and Uganda and consultation with more than 50 others in mediation efforts around the world. Good references and index.

(133 pp) ($9.35)

Christianity and the Inner Life: Twenty-First Century Reflections on the Words of Early Friends, by Margery Abbott, PH P #402, Wallingford, PA, 2009. The author searches her inner thoughts and early Quaker writings to explain her understanding of the Light of Christ in her life.

(36 pp) (Was $8.45; Now $4.25)

Engaging Scripture: Reading the Bible with Early Friends,

by Michael L. Birkel (Friends United Press, 2005) To "engage scripture" is to encounter the presence of God. This book invites us to engage Scripture experientially as early Friends did, seeing in the words of the Bible the language of the inner life.
(123 pp) (Was $18.00, Now $9.00)

The Evolutionary Potential of Quakerism Revisited: Kenneth Boulding and John Bellers, by Keith Helmuth. Chapel Street Editions, Woodstock, N.B. 2011. Based on his Quaker Studies Programme given at Canadian Yearly Meeting 2009, Keith Helmuth draws on the words of Kenneth Boulding (1964), John Bellers (1654-1725) and others to examine and trace the significance of the Religious Society of Friends in the history of religious culture and progressive social change.

(55 pp) (Was $7.00; Now $3.50)

Expectant Listening: Finding God's Thread of Guidance,

by Michael Wajda (PHP #388, 2007) The author tells of his experience and the testimonies of others in listening, hearing and seeing these aspects of seeking and finding God's messages. He has for many years followed a deep call for Quaker ministry.
(32 pp) (Was $6.50; Now $3.25)

Finding Our Voice: Our truth, community and journey as Australian Young Friends. The Religious Society of Friends, Australia, 2010. Many Young Friends have contributed dialogues and varied inputs, expressing a single consistent voice on what it means to them to be Quakers, in an original approach to this annual lecture.

(62 pp) (Was $15.00; Now $7.50)

Getting Rooted, by Brian Drayton. (PHP #391, 2007)

The author, a botanist, explores the idea of Quaker roots as a metaphor, the source of nourishment in our spiritual lives, as a discipline for life in community, and as a goal for finding harmony with the Holy Spirit.
Was $7.50 Now $3.75

I Have Always Wanted to be Jewish - and now, Thanks to the Religious Society of Friends, I am, by Claire Gorfinkel (PHP #350, 2000) After many years as a regular attendee at a California Monthly Meeting, the author found her way back to the Jewish tradition of her ancestors, while still regularly worshipping with the Religious Society of Friends. This pamphlet describes her spiritual journey.

(32 pp) (Was $8.45; Now $4.25)

If John Woolman Were Among Us: Reflections on the Ecology of Flush Toilets and Motor Vehicles,

by Keith Helmuth (CANADIAN QUAKER PAMPHLET SERIES # 32, Argenta 1989, reprinted 1994) How would Woolman respond today to the degradation of the environment, especially to "invisible technology"?
(51 pp) (Was $3.00; Now $1.50)

SALE ITEMS

Opening the Scriptures, by Tom Gates (Quaker Press of FGC, 2006)
These are excellent lecture lessons given by the author at FGC's 2005 annual gathering, based on Bible selections explored through the eyes of George Fox and other early Friends; the lectures shed Quaker "light" on individual Bible study for contemporary Friends.
(60 pp)
Was $14.90                      Now $7.45

Quaker Views on Mysticism, by Margery Post Abbott (PHP#375, 2004)
This pamphlet considers how Friends today recognize and respond to the guidance of the inward Light of Christ and describes varying Quaker views on mysticism. In the mid-1990s the author interviewed Friends in the United States and Britain about many aspects of their faith, including their understanding of mysticism. Her writings draw on her own experience and that of those whom she interviewed.
(35 pp)    (Was $8.45; Now $4.25)

Quaker Witness as Sacrament, by Daniel Snyder, PHP #397, 2008.
A Quaker pastoral psychotherapist writes of the sacraments as an inward/outward path of worship in our daily lives.
(36 pp)    (Was $8.45; Now $4.25)

The Quaking Meeting, by Helen Gould. The James Backhouse Lecture for 2009. Australia Yearly Meeting, Glen Osmond, South Australia, 2009
Inspired by the words of early Friends and by her practice of yoga and Buddhist meditation, Helen presents a well-documented study of vocal ministry and a quiet search for communion with God in Quaker worship.
(69 pp.)    (Was $15.00; Now $7.50)

Quality and Depth of Worship and Ministry
Volume 5 of the Eldership and Oversight handbook series (Quaker Books, 2001)
This book offers information, support and guidance to all those responsible for eldership and oversight, explores the questions of what worship and ministry are. Based on experiences and reflection, it is presented in the form of queries, designed to be taken a few at a time.
Was $7.50                      Now $3.75

Realizing the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, edited by J. Hartley, P. Joffe, and J. Preston (staff member of CFSC). Purich Publishing Ltd., Saskatoon, 2010.
This collection of essays, by an impressive list of indigenous leaders and knowledgeable representatives from other organizations, examines in detail the Declaration, the importance of its adoption, and the need for action on its implementation in advancing human rights.
(287 pp)    (Was $38; Now $19.00)

Seeking the Blessed Community: a History of Canadian Young Friends 1875-1996, by Kyle Jolliffe (TASC, 1997)
A rich account of the activities of Young Friends and their influence on the life of the Society as a whole.
(89 pp)    (Was $14.95; Now $7.50)

Sing and Rejoice, by Christine A.M. Davis. The Sunderland P. Gardner Lecture, 2007. Canadian Quaker Pamphlet No 66, (Argenta Press, 2008).
Christine Davis speaks of good personal relations with individuals and communities as Quaker outreach in our daily lives. The booklet contains four illustrations from the Quaker Tapestry.
Was $7.00                      Now $3.50

Special Education as a Spiritual Journey, by Michael Resman. (PHP #390, Wallingford, PA, 2007)
Michael Resman learned about patience, gentleness, love, kindness, generosity, peace, faithfulness, self-control, and joy in his work in special education with children suffering from devastating disabilities. Discussion questions
Was $7.50                      Now $3.75

Toward a New Vision of Justice, by Marc Forget (CQP No 63, Argenta Friends Press, 2006).
The author urges us to change our justice system and move from the old vision of punishment and retribution to restorative justice.
(46 pp)    (Was $5.00; Now $2.50)

The Unequal World We Inhabit, Swarthmore Lecture 2010 by Paul Lacey, Quaker Books, London, UK 2010.
Paul Lacey, an American Quaker experienced in such matters, examines terrorism and fundamentalism, both religious and political. He considers the pressures that promote suicide bombing, martyrdom and revolution on one side, and the responsibility to protect on the other. He recognizes that answers, sought as part of the Quaker peace testimony, are elusive.
(106 pp)
(Was $20.00; Now $10.00)

The World is our Cloister: A guide to the modern religious life, by Jennifer Kavanagh. "O" Books, Worcester, UK and Washington, USA, 2007.
This is a guide to practicing a daily devotional life, "to which Protestant, Catholic, Hindu and those with no label can relate." The author is active in the Quaker community as a writer, broadcaster and outreach worker.
(223 pp)
(Was $29.95; Now $15.00)

LEAFLETS

ABC: The ABC's of Quakerism ($0.45)

Canadian Friends Service Committee (free)

The Friends Peace Testimony ($2.00)

The Gathered Meeting by Thomas Kelly ($0.40)

If You Are Wondering ($0.10)

An Introduction to Quakers by Elton Trueblood ($1.30)

The Minimum Quaker ($0.20)

Peace Testimony of the Society of Friends ($0.10)

Principles of the Quaker Business Meeting ($1.30)

Quaker Funerals ($0.10 each or 10 for $0.75)

A Quaker Marriage ($0.25)

Quaker Meeting for Worship by Douglas V. Steere ($0.20)

A Quaker Path: a spiritual journey from visitor to attender to member by Membership Brochure Working Group (Philadelphia YM 2002) ($0.90)

The Quaker Way ($0.20)

A Quaker Wedding ($0.15)

Silence and Speech ($0.80)

Spiritual Responsibility in the Meeting for Business by Patricia Loring ($0.40)

Two Mules (postcard $.50; 10 for $4.50)

Ways of Worship ($0.15)

Who are the Quakers? ($0.20)

Young Foxes: Queries for Children ($0.10)

Your First Time in a Quaker Meeting? ($0.10)

When Friends Attend to Business ($0.20)

Wider Quaker Fellowship ($0.15)

Quaker United Nations Office ($0.10)

NEW

Four Information Cards for Newcomers and Enquirers

You are Welcome Here

Quaker Testimonies

How Quaker Meetings Work

Quakers and Prayer

(Each card: $.35; Set of 4 cards: $1.40)

Publications and Communications Committee Kit for Enquirers (Set of selected leaflets) (Free)

INDEX

Abbott, Edward .....	12	Christiansen, Paul .....	7	Faith, Hope and Doubt in Times of Uncertainty .....	13
Abbott, Margery .....	24	Ciscel, David, et al .....	10	Faithful Friend
Abbott, Margery Post .....	14, 25	Climate, Food and Violence .....	9	William Cronyn McCheane ....	11
ABC's of Quakerism .....	26	Community of Friends .....	19	Finch, Suzanne .....	10
Advices & Queries (BYM) .....	23	Conrow Coelho, Mary .....	16	Finding Our Voice .....	24
Advices and Queries .....	3, 23	Convinced Quakerism .....	3	Findley, Tom .....	10
Allen Jay and the Underground Railroad .....	16	Costing Not Less than Everything .....	9	Finn, Charles C. ....	15
Allen, Richard .....	5	Cox, Gray, et al .....	20	Fit for Freedom, Not for Friendship .....	11
Amazing Fact of Quaker Worship .....	3	Crabb, Leona .....	11	Flight to the Frontier .....	18
Ambler, Rex .....	4, 5	Crauder, Renee .....	15	Forged in the Fire .....	18
Ansermoz, Violette .....	12	Creating Spiritual Community .....	19	Forget, Marc .....	6, 25
Answering That of God .....	15	Creeds and Quakers .....	3	Franklin, Ursula .....	7, 9
Answering the Violence .....	6	Crompton, Margaret .....	17	Freeman, Sarah Jane .....	8
Arrowhead to Hand Axe .....	24	Cronk, Sandra .....	15	Freiday, Dean .....	13
Ashworth, Timothy .....	14	Curry, Bill .....	6	Friend: The Story of George Fox and the Quakers .....	11
Australia YM .....	17	Dark Night Journey .....	15	Friends for 350 Years .....	11
Awake and Aware .....	24	Davis, Christine A.M. ....	25	Friends Peace Testimony .....	26
Balancing .....	19	Davison, Alex .....	4	From My Demi-Paradise .....	11
Barclay, Robert .....	13	Day, Bonnie .....	19	Fueling our Future .....	10
Barclay's Apology .....	13	de Angeli, Marguerite .....	17	FWCC .....	4
Barn at the End of the World .....	21	Dealing with Difficult Behavior .....	19	Gardner, Kurt .....	13
Barton Follini, Maida .....	12	Dear Benjamin Banneker .....	16	Garver, Geoffrey .....	10
Becoming Peacemakers .....	6	Death Chosen, A .....	21	Gates, Thomas .....	16, 20
Being a Quaker .....	3	Decolonising Land and Soul .....	8	Gates, Tom .....	25
Being Changed in the Sharing .....	7	Deep Roots .....	13	Gathered Meeting .....	26
Being in the Middle .....	24	Densmore, Christopher .....	11	Genesee Friend .....	12
Belonging and the Practice of Our Faith .....	3	Dewar, Dale .....	6	Genetically Modified Crops .....	10
Best Man for Settling New Country ...	11	Discovering God as Companion .....	21	Getting Rooted .....	24
Beyond Majority Rule .....	3	Doing the Work		Gill, Catie .....	13
Beyond the Growth Dilemma .....	19	Finding the Meaning .....	8	Gillman, Harvey .....	4
Bill, J. Brent .....	16	Door In, The .....	15	Gilpen, Mariellen .....	21
Bill, T. Brent .....	15	Dorland, Arthur G. ....	13	Glory Boy .....	17
Birkel, Michael .....	4	Drayton, Brian .....	4, 24	God and decision-making .....	3
Birkel, Michael L. ....	24	Dreby, Ed .....	10, 19	God Answers Back .....	13
Black Fire .....	11	Dreby, Ed, et al .....	10	God Just Is .....	13
Black, W. Geoffrey, et al .....	6	Dudiak, Jeffrey .....	5	Godless for God's Sake .....	13
Blood, Peter .....	18	Durham, Geoffrey .....	3, 5	Going Forward Experimentally .....	19
Boardman, Elizabeth .....	23	Eccles, Peter .....	5	Goodden, E.J. ....	17
Boulding, Kenneth .....	15	Egan, Meredith .....	6, 7	Gorfinkel, Claire .....	24
Boulton, David .....	13	Eight of a Kind .....	16	Gorman, George H. ....	3
Breakthrough to Unity .....	15	Ellis, George .....	13	Gould, Helen .....	25
Brett, Rachel .....	9	Emery, Elaine .....	5	Green, Connie, McPeak .....	20
Brill, Marlene Targ .....	16	Emma Field (Book One) .....	18	Grief, Forgiveness, and Redemption as a Way of Transformation .....	15
Brinton, Howard H. ....	3, 11	Emma Field (Book Three) .....	18	Griswold, Robert .....	3
Britain YM .....	3, 23	Emma Field (Book Two) .....	18	Growing the Blessed Community .....	20
Brought to Light .....	11	Encounter with Silence .....	15	Grundy, Marty Paxton .....	20
Brown, Elizabeth .....	4	Engaging Scripture .....	24	Guests of My Life .....	22
Brown, Peter G. ....	10	Engraved		Gugler, Laurel Dee .....	17
Brown, Valerie .....	15	Canadian Stories of World War One .....	6	Guide-to Quaker Practice .....	3
Building the Life of the Meeting .....	19	Erskine, Kathryn .....	17	Gwyn, Douglas .....	10, 13
Burch, Mark A. ....	8	Essays on the Quaker Vision of Gospel Order .....	3	Haight, Deborah E. ....	20
But Who Do You Say That I Am? .....	13	Essence of George Fox's Journal .....	11	Haines, Pamela .....	7
Cadman, David .....	15	Every Bite Affects the World .....	9	Hamm, Thomas .....	5
Cdn Friends Historical Nwsltr .....	11	Evolutionary Potential of Quakerism Revisited .....	24	Handbook-Pres. Clerk .....	23
Celebrating the Quaker Way .....	3	Expectant Listening .....	24	Hartley, J., et al .....	25
CFSC .....	26	Faith and Practice		Heartfulness: Renewing Heart, Mind and Spirit on Retreat and Beyond .....	15
Chandler, Sarah .....	8	Canadian Yearly Meeting .....	23	Heath, Harriet .....	21
Chase, Steve .....	4, 9	Faith and Practice of the Quakers .....	3
Christian Faith-Practice .....	23
Christianity and the Inner Life .....	24

Helmuth, Keith.....	10, 21, 24	Lewis, Hunter .....	11	Peace Testimony of Friends.....	26
Heron Spirals.....	22	Life Lived Inside Out.....	7	Penn, William.....	16
Hertzberg, Kathleen .....	8	Light that is Shining.....	4	Perspectives on Friends Testimonies ...	9
Herzfeld, Sally .....	9	Light Within		Picturing Alyssa .....	17
Hewitson, Gerald.....	12	Then and Now .....	4	Piece of Forever.....	17
Hickey, Damon D.....	23	Listening Spirituality. Volume I.....	22	Pink Dandelion.....	4, 5
Hidden Door, the.....	8	Listening Spirituality. Volume II.....	22	Pink Dandelion, Ben.....	3, 4
Hidden Wholeness.....	15	Living Eldership .....	20	Pinkney, Andrea Davis.....	16
Hillman, Ruth.....	7	Living Our Testimony on Equality .....	4	Plain Living .....	4
Hobby, Elaine.....	13	Logan, Bette.....	7	Polster, Betty .....	12
Hockett, Betty M.....	16	Lohans, Alison.....	17	Portrait in Grey.....	12
Holiness in the Everyday.....	15	Long Road that Led Me to Quakers ....	12	Power We Call God.....	22
Holy Silence.....	15	Loring, Patricia .....	22	Powerful Beyond Measure .....	9
Hone, Kenneth C.....	24	Love Growing In Us .....	6	Powning, Beth .....	12
How Does Societal Transformation		Lumb, Judy .....	9, 19	Practice of Quaker Worship.....	4
Happen? .....	20	Lunn, Pam.....	9	Practice of the Love of God.....	15
How on Earth Do We Live Now?.....	10	Mace, Jane .....	3	Practicing Peace.....	7
How Quaker Meetings Work.....	26	Making the Diagnosis .....	6	Presence in the Midst.....	5
Hyzy, Kathy .....	20	Manzer, Marilyn .....	8	Principles-Bus. Mtg.....	26
I Don't Know Place, The.....	22	Marriage and Commitment .....	21	Pryce, Elaine.....	15
I Have Always Wanted to be Jewish ..	24	Marsh, Dawn G.....	12	Punshon, John.....	12, 15
If John Woolman Were Among Us ....	24	Marshall, Jay W.....	21	Quaker Approach to Research, A .....	20
If You Are Wondering .....	26	Matthew 18: Wisdom for Living in		Quaker Faith and Practice.....	23
In Search of a Moral Economy.....	8	Community .....	20	Quaker Funerals.....	26
In the Love of Nature .....	10	McDaniel, Donna.....	11	Quaker Marriage.....	26
Inner Strength, An.....	20	McIntosh, Alastair .....	8	Quaker Meeting for Worship.....	26
International Experience with AVP.....	7	Measure of Light, A.....	12	Quaker Odyssey .....	12
Intro from Quaker Spirituality.....	3	Meeting.....	20	Quaker Path.....	26
Introduction to Quakerism.....	4	Meeting the Spirit .....	4	Quaker Process for Friends on the
Introduction to Quakers.....	26	Members One of Another .....	20	Benches .....	5
It's the Economy, Friends .....	10	Miller, Larry .....	4	Quaker Quest.....	6, 7, 9, 14
Jail Fire .....	12	Mind of Christ.....	4	Quaker Reader.....	5
James Nayler Speaking .....	4	Minimum Quaker.....	26	Quaker Testimonies.....	26
Jarman, Roswitha.....	15	Minutes to Midnight .....	6	Quaker Testimony to the Earth? .....	10
John Woolman (français).....	12	Mitchell, Anne, et al.....	10	Quaker United Nations Office .....	26
John Yungblut: Passing the Mystical		Moulton, Phillips P.....	12	Quaker Views on Mysticism.....	25
Torch.....	15	Moving into Membership.....	20	Quaker Way
Jolliffe, Kyle.....	25	Muddling toward Simplicity .....	10	A Rediscovery.....	5
Jones, Rufus.....	3	Mullen, Dana .....	3, 19	Quaker Way (for youth).....	17
Journal and Major Essays of John		Mullen, Vernon.....	13	Quaker Way (leaflet) .....	26
Woolman.....	12	Navias, Mathilda.....	5	Quaker Wedding.....	26
Journal of George Fox (Nickalls) .....	12	Never Broken Treaty?.....	8	Quaker Witness as Sacrament.....	25
Journal of Timothy Rogers.....	11	Nickalls, John .....	12	Quaker Writings
Journey into Life .....	12	Night is Full of Stars .....	12	An Anthology, 1650-1920 .....	5
Journeying the Heartlands, Exploring		No Shame, No Fear.....	18	Quakerism – A Religion Meaningful for
Practices of Quaker Worship.....	4	Nonviolent Direct Action as a Spiritual		Today's World.....	5
Joy, Leonard.....	20	Path .....	8	Quakerism: A Theology for Our Time	14
Julye, Vanessa.....	11	Nurturing Children's Spiritual Well-		Quakers
Kaufman-Lacusta, Maxine .....	7	Being.....	17	A Very Short Introduction .....	5
Kavanagh, Jennifer.....	25	Observations on War and other poems	19	Quakers and Prayer.....	26
Kelly, Thomas.....	16	Occupied with Nonviolence: A		Quakers in Canada.....	13
Kindlers.....	4, 6, 13, 14, 15	Palestinian Woman Speaks .....	7	Quaking.....	17
Kit for Enquirers .....	26	Once Upon a Conflict .....	9	Quaking Meeting.....	25
La Lumière intérieure, source de vie ..	13	Open for Transformation .....	4	Quality and Depth of Worship and
Lacey, Paul.....	25	Opening the Scriptures.....	25	Ministry .....	25
Lakey, George.....	9	O'Reilly, Mary Rose .....	21	Queries as Prayers .....	16
Lampen, John.....	6	Organization and Procedure.....	23	Rachel and Obadiah.....	17
Larrabee, Arthur.....	20	Palmer, Parker J.....	15	Radicalizing Spirit.....	5
Larrabee, Margery Mears .....	20	Parkinson, Frank .....	22	Ramamurthy, Stephanie.....	14
Leadership and Authority in the		Parr, Peter .....	15	Realizing the UN Declaration on the
Religious Society of Friends.....	20	Parry, Caroline Balderston.....	22	Rights of Indigenous Peoples.....	25
Leaveners, the .....	18	Paths of Faith in the Landscape of		Reclaiming the Transcendent.....	16
Leimdorfer, Tom .....	9	Science.....	13	Recovering Sacred Presence in a
Lenape among the Quakers, a.....	12	Paths to Quaker Parenting.....	21	Disenchanted World .....	16
Letters to a Fellow Seeker .....	4	Patterson, Annie.....	18	Refusing to be Enemies .....	7

Religious Society of Friends, Australia .....	24	Spiritual Accompaniment .....	5	Universalism and Spirituality .....	16
Rembert, Ron B. ....	16	Spiritual Responsibility in the Meeting for Business .....	26	Ursula Franklin Reader.....	7
Resman, Michael.....	25	Spiritual Reviews.....	20	Ursula Franklin Speaks.....	8
Revelation and Revolution .....	9	Stanfield, David O. ....	23	Verrall, Catherine .....	9
Right Relationship.....	10	Steere, Douglas V. ....	3	Visioning New Fire .....	6
Rise Up Singing .....	18	Stevenson, Helen .....	19	Waging Peace .....	7
Robinson, Julie C. ....	12	Strunz, George M., et al .....	13	Wajda, Michael .....	24
Rooted in Christianity, Open to New Light.....	14	Sun of Quaker Laughter.....	19	Walling, Cathy.....	5
Routledge, Jenny .....	20	Sustainable Life .....	10	Ward, Betty .....	19
Rule, Bernadette.....	6, 11	Taber, William and Frances .....	19	Watson, Elizabeth.....	22
Russell, Hannah.....	21	Taylor, Richard K. ....	8	Ways of Worship.....	26
Sacred Compass .....	16	Testament of Devotion.....	16	Weaver, Harold, et al.....	11
Sanctuary of the Soul .....	16	Thee, Hannah!.....	17	Webb, Simon.....	13
Schenck, Patience A. ....	4	This I Warn You in Love .....	13	West, Jessamyn .....	5
Schmitz-Hertzberg, Kathleen .....	11	This We Can Do .....	9	What We Stand On.....	7
Schmitz-Hertzberg, Friedrich .....	12	Thomson, Murray .....	6	When Friends Attend to Business.....	26
Schrauwers, Albert .....	11	Thy Friend, Obadiah .....	17	Where Should I Stand?.....	23
Seeking the Blessed Community.....	25	To be Broken and Tender.....	14	Where the Wind Blows.....	21
Sessions, William K. ....	19	Toward a New Vision .....	25	Whispers of Faith .....	6
Sheeran, Michael J. ....	3	Tracking Down Ecological Guidance ..	21	Whitmore, Catherine .....	4, 7
Signposts .....	14	Truth of the Heart .....	5	Who are the Quakers?.....	26
Silence & Speech .....	5	Tucker, Eva.....	14	Who do you say I am? .....	14
Silence and Speech.....	26	Turkle, Brinton .....	17	Wider Quaker Fellowship.....	26
Sing and Rejoice .....	25	Turnbull, Ann .....	18	Wildwood, Alex .....	14
Sing in the Spirit.....	18	Twelve Quakers and Equality .....	9	Williams, Carol .....	18
Smith, Jane Orion.....	19, 20	Twelve Quakers and Evil.....	14	Williams, Patricia A. ....	14, 16
Smith, Lisa .....	7	Twelve Quakers and Faith .....	14	Williams, Sue and Steve .....	24
Smith, Steve .....	10	Twelve Quakers and God.....	14	Wilson, Lloyd Lee .....	3, 6, 14
Snakes and Ladders.....	9	Twelve Quakers and Jesus .....	14	Witch of Blackbird Pond .....	17
Snyder, Daniel.....	25	Twelve Quakers and Pacifism.....	7	World is our Cloister .....	25
Some Fruits of-Solitude.....	16	Twelve Quakers and Simplicity .....	9	Worship in Song.....	18
Speare, Elizabeth George .....	17	Twelve Quakers and Truth.....	14	Wrestling with Our Faith Tradition .....	6
Special Education as a Spiritual Journey .....	25	Twelve Quakers and Worship.....	6	Yolen, Jane .....	11
Spirit of the Quakers .....	5	Two Mules .....	26	You are Welcome Here .....	26
Spirit-led Eldering.....	20	Unequal World We Inhabit.....	25	Young Foxes.....	26
		Unforeseen Joy .....	23	Your First Time .....	26
		Universalism and Religions .....	14	Zaru, Jean .....	7
				Zavitz, Ruth.....	18

ORDER FORM

If there is not enough space, please attach an additional page

Mail to: QUAKER BOOK SERVICE
 Box 4652 Station E
 Ottawa, Ontario
 K1S 5H8

Number of Copies	Title	Price
.....	.....	.....
.....	.....	.....
.....	.....	.....
.....	.....	.....
.....	.....	.....

Total for books ..... ..

Postal Charges

Value of order between	Postage
$0 and $9.95 .....	$2.50
$10 to $19.95 .....	$7.50
$20 to $34.95 .....	$10.00
$35 to $59.95 .....	$11.50
$60 and over .....	$13.00

Add appropriate postal charges to book costs .....
 (HST is already included; do not add more.)

Amount enclosed: ..... Total: .....

Name: ..... Date: .....

Address: .....
 .....
 ..... Postal Code: .....

Please Note: QBS does not have the resources of a commercial bookseller, so in general we are unable to make special orders for books not in our regular stock.