At Canada Half Yearly Meeting of Friends held at Bloomfield the 12th of 6th Month 1914.

It being considered a more suitable time and to better serve the convenience of those convened and some notice having been given to that effect, the meeting adjourned to meet at 2:30 to-morrow afternoon.

At Canada Half Yearly Meeting of Friends held at Bloomfield Ontario the 13th of 6th Month 1914.

The clerk being absent the name of Filona Barker being proposed and approved, she is requested to act for the day.

The Half Yearly Meeting minute Book having been lost by theft since the last Half Yearly Meeting, it is found necessary to proceed with this meeting without reference to proceeding minutes.

The minutes of Yonge St Monthly Meeting and West Lake Monthly Meeting were read. All the representatives present except five, satisfactory reasons being given for the absence of two.

Yonge St Monthly Meeting recognising the matter of extending the franchise to women instructs its representatives to bring before the Half Yearly Meeting the request that that body forward the matter to the Yearly Meeting. After some discussion it was united that the subject be referred to the ~~Monthly~~ Yearly Meeting for its consideration and action.

The queries were read with their answers as forwarded from the subordinate meetings. A summary was adopted and directed to be forwarded to the Yearly Meeting, in care of the following friends

Stephen K. Brown	George Phillips
Christina Talcott	Joseph J. Brown
Jemima Brown	Filona Barker
Jonathan Talcott.

who are appointed to attend it as representatives, also to call upon the clerk for the money required by the Yearly Meeting and pay it to the treasurer of the same.

We learn with regret of the illness of Irene Brown, one of the representatives appointed. The clerk is requested to write her a letter expressing the sincere sympathy of this meeting.

Having been enabled to transact the business with harmony, we now adjourn to meet at Yonge St at the usual time in ninth month next.

Filona Barker Clerk.

Answers to the Queries.

1st Some friends have been diligent in the attendance of our meetings for worship and discipline but conditions are not entirely satisfactory in these respects. Hour of meeting fairly well observed.

2nd Friends generally maintain love and fellowship as becomes our Christian profession, no differences known, talebearing and detraction discouraged.

3rd Friends are clear of the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage and do use their influence toward total abstinence in their neighborhood, none known to frequent taverns or places of demoralizing tendency.

4th Assistance has been reasonably afforded. Attention has been given to the education of children to fit them for business.

5th Friends maintain a faithful testimony in favour of a free gospel ministry resting upon divine qualification and bear a testimony against war, oaths and all forms of oppression.

6th Friends are careful to be just in their dealings and punctual in complying with their engagements and endeavor to live within the bounds of their circumstances and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage, as becomes our Christian profession and when any give [...]

The meeting then adjourned to meet again at 2 P.M. -

About the time adjourned to, the Meeting resumed the business as follows.--

When the foregoing committee made the following report.-

The devastating War in Europe and the conditions of Life and government, which have given rise to the same, has engaged our earnest attention with more than usual concern.

Our minds lovingly turn to the Friends in England especially, at this trying time, and we gratefully acknowledge the expression of their attitude in the broad visioned and weighty message

“To men and women of Good Will in the British Empire.

We believe our present duty lies not so much in criticism of the methods employed to end hostilities, as in prayer and effort without ceasing for the attainment of 'Love that [cut off] out fear' that inspires and leads us to the relief of suffering, to the employments of our talents in an examination of the conditions of [Life] and Living, of trade and Commerce, and of the real Spirit and aim [cut off] government, which have given [rise] to the violation of the righteous [relations] of men, as a preparation for service in the reconstruction period which must surely follow."

Now with thankfulness to [the] Divine Father for the realization of his Loving Spirit with us during the different sessions of the meeting, we now adjourn to meet at Toronto at 10 a.m. 7th day preceeding the Yearly Meeting in 6th month next.

the representatives being called and all present excepting two. No reports were received from West Lake Monthly or Pickering Executive meetings.

The term of the clerks appointment expiring at this time the name of Filona Barker was united with and she appointed for one year, Mildred Hughes being appointed for the day.

Bring The communication received from Pickering Executive meeting in 9th month up 1915 which directed the observance of Yonge St monthly meeting, but again that meeting decided that under present circumstances they had no authority to take any action in the matter and have returned it back to the observance of this meeting which after deliberation thereon, this meeting is united in granting their request so far as we have any jurisdiction in the matter by consenting to recognize their Executive Board already appointed and their successors, as having all power to transact business, to receive and care for and apply all money now in their possession, and all that may come to them for the upkeep of that meetings property.

A very acceptable epistle of Fellowship from Yonge St. Quarterly Meeting of Friends held at Pickering 23rd of 9th month 1916 was read and greatly appreciated.
