Copy of our epistle to Leeds Monthly meeting

Dear Friends way not opening to attend your meeting I believe I shall feel easiest to write a few lines to you, my mind had often been turned towards you since entering this Province In a fervent desire I have had for your growth in grace and in the saving knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, I believe there are many among you that have been favored to taste of the Lords goodness & have been brought to make solem covenants with a covenant keeping God –

Oh my friends be not puffed up nor exalted one above another but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than than themselves – we have nothing to boast of - nothing but what we have received of him for it is by grace (said the great Apostle to the Gentiles) that we are saved and that not of ourselves but to think soberly for he that thinketh he knoweth anything knoweth nothing as he ought, that we should manifest a diffidence of our selves is evident, from our Lords expressions when ye have done all those things which are commanded we are unprofitable servants we have done that which was our duty to do & especially in our solem convocations – that we should not be forward appears evident from our Lords expression on another occasion when thou art bidden to a wedding sit not down in the highest room but a more honorable than thou be bidden and he that bide thee come and say to thee give this man place and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room but when thou art bidden go and sit down in the lowest room that when he that bade thee cometh he may say unto thee friend go up higher then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meal with thee, for whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted, truly my friends it is a great thing to be made sensible of our unworthiness, and I must say for so – it seems to be impressed on my mind that I fear the enemy of all righteousness whose – work it is to lay waste if it were possible the whole heritage of God is lurking round your borders seeking to make inroads upon you, even in your solem meetings he fails not to present himself and although it may be in that Angelick appearance – that he is said to have transformed himself into which I have thought was the most to be dreaded yet his work is to draw the mind from that holy quiet solem & awful reverence that becomes the true worshippers of him who is a spirit and they that worship him must worship him in spirit & in truth . Oh friends glory not in that ye are strong lest the enemy scatter you & you become weak I believe there are those among you who deeply feel the necessity of keeping low and humble and altho these may feel very weak & poor yet remember that the Apostle said when he was weak then he was strong – that my dear friends be encouraged to live near the truth for the truth is as precious as ever it was it has not changed but remains to be an eternal substance a – manisfistation of the love of God – wherefore any brethern – you that have felt a measure of the love of God to flow in your hearts which has caused you to rejoice at times by which your souls have been refreshed in which love you have felt to invite others in the language Oh come taste & see the Lord is good Oh dwell in His love that emanates and flows from the fountain of love is what enables us to love & forgive one another even as

God for Christ sake hath forgiven us. This was one of the distinguishing features that marked the following of Christ by this he told them should all men know that ye are my Disciples if – ye have love one for another That my dear friends while we are covering ourselves waits this exalted profession of being led & guided by the unerring Spirit of Christ Jesus our Lord & ???giver let us dig deep & be weighty in all our movements that we may adorn our profession being examples of the believers in word & deed that whatsoever we do may be all to his Glory And dear friends there is one thing more that exercises my mind whether it will apply if any individual among you I know not but if it is only for a word of caution let it be remembered if any man among you, seem to be religious and holdeth not his tongue that mans religion is v??? the tongue is a little member & barketh? great things behold have great a ma?tes or little fire kindleth that we ought to keep a bridle on our tongues and be very careful not to speak diminitively one of another which would in any way lower their standing or lesson the esteem of any of our friends in the eyes of others let it not be said of any of us – that with the tongue we bless even God the father and therewith curse we men which are made after the similitude of God but he does endeavor to build one another up in the most holy faith that so-every thing may be preserved in good order and in honor preferring one anothers lest a rash of bitterness spring up among you & trouble you & thereby may be defited? & now dear friends in conclusion may you be strong in the Lord & in the powers of his might put on the whole armor of God that ye may be able to with stand in the wet day and having done all your ????? girt about with truth having on the ????? ????? of righteousness your feet shod with the gospel of peace above all taking the shield of faith wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the firey darts of the wicked

With love to you all I remain your friend who feels for your growth and settlement in the unchangeable truth

Farewell Nathan? Duglus

The London, Rhode Island, Philadelphia and Baltimore Epistles were received and read in this meeting to our encouragement and satisfaction which are directed down to our Preparitive Meetings. Also the Extracts from our last yearly Meeting were received and read and are as follows and are directed with the above.

At a Yearly Meeting of Women friends held in New York by adjournments from the 15th to the 29th of the 5 mo. 1812 inclusive.

The meeting was renewedly introduced into a close and feeling we exercise, on account of the education of the children amongst us accompanied with a fear, that some of them are deprived of the benefit of suitable school learning; and much sympathy was expressed for those who, from their remote and scattered situations, or other causes, find many difficulties arise in the fulfilment of this very important duty, and an affectionate solicitation was felt, that those intrusted with the tuition of this precious part of the family, may be so impressed with a sense of its importance as to feel the necessity of continual and increasing care and exertion, in establishing such schools as may under the direction of friends; where their children and others of whom they have the charge, may not only receive such a share of learning as will conduce to their comfort and advantage through life; but be preserved from the hurtful consequences, which sometimes arise from mixing in schools where religious principles different from those we profess are inculcated. And in order that so desirable an object may be more effectually promoted each Quarterly Meeting is desired to appoint two friends, and each Monthly meeting as many, who are to make inquiries and receive information from an appointment of the same kind, which each Preparative is also to make - whether there friends Schools in their Neighborhood; and where there are not, endeavor to find some well disposed young woman willing to engage in this laudable undertaking, that friends may be encouraged to send their own children and those under their care to be instructed in useful learning; and we feel concerned that we many not look out for great acquirements; but that the beautiful simplicity of our profession may be preserved, And the different Committees appointed by the Monthly and Quarterly Meetings and Sarah Bowne and Sarah Collins in this City are Authorized to receive any donations, gifts of books, or personal assistance voluntarily bestowed, for forwarding this work. And it is desired that, through the medium of those friends appointed in the Quarterly Meetings, accounts be brought up to this Meeting, how far this plan may prove answerable to the concern.

At A Yearly Meeting of Women Friends, held in New York

By Adjournments, from the 27th of the Fifth Month, to the 31st of the same, inclusive, 1816

Among the various subjects that have, we trust, been profitably spread before us at this season, we have been tenderly recommended to the practice of frequently collecting our families and reading a portion of the sacred writings, which being “written aforetime for our learning, are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness;” believing, that while with uprightness of heart we are endeavouring to place ourselves and those entrusted to our care in the Way of good, we should at seasons witness the truth of the promise, “Ask, and it shall be given you, seek, and ye shall find.” And for those who have lately set out in life, the younger mothers, whose “precious offspring are rising like olive plants around their table,” much solicitude has been felt; many are the cares attending this stage of our pilgrimage, and very important its effects, both to the parents and the children: how necessary then to seek for that help which will enable us to possess our souls in patience, while, by precept, example, and restraining love we are labouring to subject the wayward passions of the tender, and even infant mind, and to suppress the first buddings of evil. Thus we shall become instrumental in preparing the way of the Lord, and making his paths straight. We have also believed, that if parents were careful to treat their children, as they advance to riper years, with a prudent freedom, it would not only tend to strengthen the bonds of affection, but produce a confidence which, leading to open the heart to a beloved parent, would prove as a hedge around the experienced mind, and oftentimes prevent the forming of such connexions as too frequently imbitter life to its latest period.

And while we are sensitive that offences will come until there is a suffering the gospel axe to be thoroughly laid to the root of the corrupt tree; we have earnestly desired that those who have already submitted to its powerful operation may shew that the tree has become good, by bringing forth the peaceable fruit of righteousness, not only using all diligence to make their own calling and election sure, but tenderly watching over their fellow professors for good; bearing in mind the apostolic injunction, "if any are overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual such an one in the spirit of meekness, considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted:" so shall we be enabled to strengthen the things that are remaining, which are ready to die, looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you.

The concern relative to schools coming before us at this time, it was renewedly felt to be a very interesting and important subject; and the language of encouragement was held forth to those engaged in this laudable work. And friends in the different quarters are pressingly desired to continue their care and exertions to extend the benefit of literary instruction to all under our care. And our men friends informing us, that the subject had also engaged the attention of their meeting, and that they had directed the Quarterly Meetings to appoint Committees to visit the Monthly and Preparative Meetings, to advise and encourage the establishment of schools under the care of those meetings; this meeting, on deliberate consideration, unites with them therein, and our Quarterly Meetings are requested to proceed, accordingly.

Signed by direction and on behalf of the meeting,

ANNE MOTT, Clerk
