

Report from the Canadian Quaker Learning Series Editorial Board to Publications & Communications Committee

January 2018

1. Maggie Smith's 2016 SPG lecture was published and distributed with the CYM appeal letter in December 2017.
2. We were very pleased to learn that the new CQLS editorial board has now been formed, with John Samson-Fellows as Clerk, and will work closely with them to ensure an easy transition,
3. The final edited version of Steve Fick's 2017 SPG lecture was emailed to the new CQLS editorial board on January 12.
4. As far as distribution is concerned, the initial suggestion from the Publications & Communication Committee's Editorial Subcommittee was that the pamphlet be sent out with the next issue of Canadian Friend at the end of January. However, that deadline may very well be too tight. There will be another issue of Canadian Friend in late spring. We are recommending that they contact Tim Kitz, to get a better fix on actual dates.
